

EXHIBIT 4

AGREEMENTS FOR TRANSACTION

The instant application seeks FCC approval to insert a wholly-owned subsidiary, Tribune Broadcasting Holdco, LLC (“Broadcasting Holdco”), between Tribune Broadcasting Company and Tribune Company in the ownership chain for the licensee. This transaction results in no change in ultimate ownership of the licensee, as Tribune Company remains the ultimate parent of the licensee both before and after the transaction. Because there is no change in the ultimate ownership of the licensee, the transaction is pro forma in nature. See 47 C.F.R. § 73.3540(f)(5).

Because this is an intra-company transaction, no formal agreements between the parties are necessary prior to consummation. Instead, Tribune Company’s Board of Directors has provided general authorization for the creation of wholly-owned subsidiaries, including Broadcasting Holdco, a Delaware limited liability company, and the contribution of all of Tribune Company’s rights, title and interest in and to the issued and outstanding stock of Tribune Broadcasting Company to Broadcasting Holdco. After receipt of FCC approval, Tribune Company will contribute the stock of Tribune Broadcasting Company to Broadcasting Holdco.
