

SCHEDULE "C"

Personal Property

RCA 1,000 watt transmitter

One standby Raytheon transmitter (repairable, needs tubes)

EAS Gorman-Redlick unit (with printer)

Burke Remote system, includes engineer call-up in event of transmitter failure

Control boards and mixers...One Ampro, One RCA, One Collins

Satellite receiver (not digital)

Two CD players

Two Cassette recorder-players

One 5-Spot play-only machine (cartridge)

One ITC player-recorder (cartridge)

Large inventory of usable cartridges

Two equalizers

Great music supply on records (good condition), cassettes, compact discs.
Thousands of vintage and up-to-date selections available.

Eight desks in offices

One fire-resistant file cabinet secure lock, 4 drawers

Eleven file cabinets (non-secure, non-fire resistant)

Two credenzas

One SMARTS Broadcast computer system for music/commercials.

One office copier (excellent)

One FAX machine (excellent)

Eight IBM typewriters (most in good condition)

Broadcast tower, ground system on approximately 12.5 acre property. Includes all tuning components and new coaxial line (400 plus feet)

Two ORBAN equalizers plus assorted audio and switching equipment at transmitter site.

One ACER computer for keeping stations records, billing, etc. New in 2000.

Assorted styles of chairs at the desks and main console.

One executive desk with executive chair (high back)

One Station remote van (1976 CHEVROLET VERSAVAN—60,000 actual miles).

1999 OMNITRONIX 1,000 watt transmitter, solid-state.

MISCELLANEOUS:

All equipment, parts and inventory that is specific for radio transmitters, used or acquired by Seller for use with or in the Station, whether presently in use or being stored within the existing transmitter building and in the existing studios.