DIGITAL TV STATION AND DTV
TABLE OF ALLOTMENTS PROTECTION

Media-Com Television, Inc.
Cleveland, OH

With the exception of WOUC-DT - Cambridge, Ohio, the presently licensed W35AX operating facilities provide the protection required by Section 73.6013 of the FCC Rules to all DTV allotments and all authorized and proposed DTV facilities requiring protection consideration. These presently licensed W35AX operating facilities, however, would result in new interference to the WOUC-DT DTV allotment facilities to 9621 persons, or 1.59% of the WOUC-DT benchmark DTV service population, which exceeds the 0.49% rounding tolerance permitted by this rule section.<sup>1</sup> The licensee of W35AX, however, has entered into a written agreement with the licensee of WOUC-DT under which WOUC-DT agrees to accept this interference, pursuant to Section 73.6022(a) of the FCC Rules. A copy of this written agreement is included as part of this exhibit.

Based on this written agreement, the presently licensed W35AX operating facilities fully comply with all applicable domestic DTV protection requirements, eliminating the need for W35AX to modify its operating facilities to satisfy domestic protection criteria before it can be granted a Class A license. Thus, it should now be possible for W35AX to be granted Class A status for its licensed facilities once procedures are in place to <sup>1</sup>The WOUC-DT construction permit application (BPEDT-20000407ACF), as originally filed, specified "checklist" facilities and, thus, it was not necessary for W35AX to conduct separate interference studies for the facilities originally specified in this application to determine compliance with the applicable protection requirements with regard to WOUC-DT. It was not amended to specify the maximization facilities which are authorized by the construction permit granted to cover this application until after the May 1, 2000 deadline by which such maximization requests had to be filed to be eligible for protection from LPTV stations pursuing their initial Class A license. As a result, the facilities authorized by this maximization construction permit are not entitled to any additional protection consideration by W35AX in attempting to obtain its initial Class A license.
