

The map displays the broadcast area for WLS-FM, showing the signal path (green line) and the WLSQ 60 dBu F(50,50) signal path (orange line). The WLS-FM signal path starts at the WLS-FM transmitter (blue cross) near Nashville and extends to the northeast, passing through various locations like Clarksville, Nashville, and Murfreesboro. The WLSQ 60 dBu F(50,50) signal path starts at the WLSQ transmitter (blue dot) near Nashville and extends to the northeast, passing through various locations like Clarksville, Nashville, and Murfreesboro. The map includes numerous place names and a coordinate grid.

Figure 3A