From Our Articles/Bylaws:

ARTICLE 2: PURPOSES

The Corporation is organized as a public benefit nonprofit corporation and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes as those terms are defined in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or successor provisions of successor codes (the "Code"). The Corporation may engage in any lawful activities for which corporations may be organized pursuant to the Oregon Nonprofit Corporation Act (the "Act"); provided, however, that none of these activities shall be for profit and that no substantial portion of the Corporation's activities shall further any purpose other than the one of the exempt purposes for which the Corporation is organized. This Corporation's primary purpose shall be organized and operated exclusively for literary, artistic, and educational purposes.

In furtherance of this purpose, the corporation shall facilitate creative expression in radio broadcast and internet media by providing instruction to the public and access to resources, workshops and educational programs for the writing, preparation and creation of audio programming and media including live and recorded broadcast, webcasting and podcasting and other audio material.

Mission Statement from Our Website:

"Our mission is to hold a microphone up to the best and most distinctive of Portland. To build a culturally relevant center for ideas, music, and creativity in service of a more open media and a more just community."
