

Global Change Multi-Media dba Global Change Radio

Program Names and Descriptions

Wake Up Tucson: Live morning show that will stimulate the senses featuring talk, music, interviews with Tucson community movers and shakers, coverage of local events and highlighting of local organizations making a difference. This live hosted daily morning show will get your blood flowing and your day going.

Global Change Music Experience: Featuring the music of local, national and international musicians who are endeavoring to bring positive change to the world. Musicians and bands featured will be those who write songs about taking action against injustice where people are oppressed as well as activists who promote sustainable living, including growing organic food, building green, permaculture, sharing services and goods (trade and barter), and have a protective environmental consciousness.

State of the Planet: A live daily show hosted news program covering current planetary news and events not ordinarily covered in the mainstream media. Topics such as earth changes, spiritual and social movements, environmental, and humanitarian concerns will be covered. Individuals and organizations both local and beyond making a difference will be highlighted. This program will feature guests and local call ins.

EcoVillage Living: Participate and listen to educational and inspirational in depth discussions and guidance on living in and forming communities and ecovillages, featuring guests from ecovillages around the world as well as members of Avalon Organic Gardens & EcoVillage, located south of Tucson. All the ins and outs of ecovillage living covering topics such as agriculture, food production, organic gardening, alternative energy, green building, governance, conflict resolution and issues related to sustainable living.

Food For Ascension: Talk show about the new paradigm of sustaining community by providing pure food through fair systems that interact together and support a vibrant life, vibrant community, and a vibrant self with the ultimate intention of reconnecting our body, mind, and soul. Featuring new thought pioneers in the food industry from around Tucson and beyond.

Conversations with Activists: Conversations with Activists to Inspire Global Change provides a forum for local, national and international activists to voice their concern for humanitarian issues. Featuring interviews and discussions with musical, social, and spiritual activists. This motivating show will inspire you to be the change you want to see in the world.

Tucson Music with a Message: Focused on showcasing local Tucson and Southern Arizona musical artists' message music. This show will be a catalyst for musicians to write lyrics and melodies with a positive message to raise people's consciousness. Uplifting events in the community will be announced.

Teachings On Healing: This hosted show will offer very real solutions for personal transformation and healing, recognizing the role each patient plays in his or her own healing process and the importance of a wholehearted desire to heal holistically, or rather soulistically. Assisting listeners in discerning and addressing the root cause of illness whether physical, emotional, or spiritual. Featuring live local interviews of healing practitioners in Tucson and beyond.

Sea of Glass Center For The Arts On The Air: Tune in every day of the week for an educational experience on the air! The Sea of Glass Center for the Arts (located in the same building as the Global Change Radio studio) will record and air radio appropriate concerts, lectures, and classes and programs for the whole family focused on the arts, including singing, dancing, photography, video and filmmaking, theater, arts and crafts, music lessons and the culinary arts.

The Best of the Film Industry: Tune in for discussions and reviews on the best films of today and yesterday. We are what we consume - whether it be food, literature, music, or films. We need to be aware of not only what we are putting into our bodies, but also what we are putting into our minds. The Best of the Film Industry will introduce listeners to entertaining, thought provoking and uplifting films that have a message of value.

Justice to the People: Talk show with local attorney giving some of the latest information on the local legal scene. Occasionally a call in opportunity for the listener on legal topics will be announced. Also, let's look at the ABCs of avoiding legal entanglement or representing yourself. Surprise local guests will be featured to share their experiences.

The CosmoPop® Music Hour – Experience CosmoPop®! Music of the future for minds of the future. CosmoPop® music is spiritual vocal music that addresses the sufferings of our times and gives hope for a better world to come. It is TaliasVan's unique form of Global Change Music which he plays with the 9-piece Bright & Morning Star Band that raises the consciousness of its listeners and brings you to a higher dimension. In addition to being a master musician, TaliasVan is a spiritual leader and visionary, a social and political change agent, an environmentalist, a father, an activist, and the author of several books.

World Music Journey: An hour-long magical journey around the world of music. An exploration of international sound from the Orient to Afro-Beat, Indian Breaks to Moroccan Roll; from then to now and here to there—experience this World Music Journey each week.

A Musical Odyssey: Featuring musicians striving to make a difference through their music and lives. A diversity of musical styles will be featured to keep it interesting for the evening listener.

Cosmic Humor Hour: Higher humor comes to the airwaves. Join in the fun by listening to local Cosmic Comedians.

Global Change Teachings for the New Millennium: An ongoing series of spiritual teachings that give answers to the crises of our times. The topics of these teachings deal with the various environmental, social, and spiritual issues we are faced with today as planetary citizens and address our individual responsibility for global change through personal change. Featuring local and global renowned activists, teachers, and spiritual leaders.

Revelation Radio: A discussion of aspects of The URANTIA Book and Continuing Fifth Epochal Revelation (CFER) as found in the Cosmic Family Volumes with readers and teachers of The URANTIA Book and (CFER). Learn about epochal revelation and what it means for your life and for this world.

Hands in the Soil: A talk show featuring organic gardening tips from local and master organic gardeners. Guests are interviewed and questions taken from listeners. Topics such as Farm to Table, Community Supported Agriculture, native seed preservation, genetically modified foods, seasonal desert gardening techniques will be covered.

*Most of Global Change Radio's programming will be locally originated, but we may also present some syndicated shows.