

Exhibit 35

Community of License Change – Section 307(b)

This application proposes to change the community of license for WEAT-FM from West Palm Beach, Florida to Miramar, Florida and for the station to operate as a Class C1 facility. As a result, WEAT-FM will provide first local service for Miramar, Florida on Channel 282C1. Meanwhile, West Palm Beach will remain well served by the four FM and two AM stations assigned to it. Additionally, WEAT-FM would be able to serve an additional 1,145,119 persons from its new allotment. Thus, grant of the instant application would result in a preferential arrangement of allotments and would serve the public interest.

As further described in Exhibit 29, this application is submitted on a contingent basis pursuant to Section 73.3517(e) of the FCC's Rules with a concurrently filed amendment to the application of Alex Media, Inc., for a New FM station to serve Islamorada, Florida.¹

1. Technical Compliance

The proposed allotment of Channel 282C1 to Miramar, Florida complies with the Commission's technical requirements. As indicated in the attached channel study in the Technical Exhibit, Channel 282C1 can be allotted to Miramar, Florida in compliance with the Commission's spacing rules.² Furthermore, a Class C1 station can provide a 70 dBu signal to Miramar from the proposed reference site.³

2. Compliance with Allotment Priorities

In Amendment of the Commission's Rules Regarding Modification of FM and TV Authorizations to Specify a New Community of License, the Commission stated that in order to grant a change in community of license, (1) the proposed use of the channel must be mutually exclusive with its current use; (2) the existing community of license must retain local service; and (3) the proposed arrangement of allotments must be preferred over the existing arrangement under the Commission's allotment priorities.⁴ In reviewing a proposal to change a station's community of license, the Commission compares the proposed allotment plan and the existing state of allotments for the communities involved.⁵ To determine whether a proposal would result in a preferential arrangement of allotments, the Commission is guided by the FM allotment priorities.⁶ The FM priorities are: (1) first full-time aural service; (2) second full-time aural service; (3) first local service; and (4) other public interest matters.⁷ Co-equal weight is given to priorities (2) and (3).⁸

Reallotting WEAT-FM on Channel 282C1 to Miramar complies with the Commission's policies for changing a station's community of license. First, the channel study in the attached Technical Exhibit, Figure 1A, demonstrates that the proposed allotment of Channel 282C1 at Miramar is mutually exclusive with the current allotment for WEAT-FM on Channel 282C at West Palm Beach. Second, West Palm Beach will not be deprived of its only local service because four FM stations (WAYF(FM), WIRK-FM, WPBI(FM), and WRLX(FM)) and two AM stations (WFTL(AM) and WNJO(AM)) will continue to provide local service to West Palm Beach.⁹ Third, re-allotting WEAT-FM to Miramar would better serve the public interest under Priority (4) than maintaining existing service in West Palm Beach.

The Commission should process the new allotment at Miramar under Priority (4). As shown in the Technical Exhibit, Figure 8, both Miramar and West Palm Beach are within the Miami, Florida Urbanized Area. Thus, Licensee is requesting an intra-urbanized community of license change and a Tuck showing is unnecessary.¹⁰ Instead, Licensee must demonstrate that (A) Miramar qualifies as a community for allotment purposes and (B) allotting WEAT-FM to Miramar would better serve the public interest and the Miami Urbanized Area.¹¹

2.A Qualifications of Community

Miramar qualifies as a community for allotment purposes. The Commission defines communities as “geographically identifiable population groupings”¹² and considers whether the social, economic, and cultural organizations located in the community identify themselves with the community.¹³ In addition, the Commission has a long-standing policy of presuming community status “if the proposed community is either incorporated or listed in the U.S. Census.”¹⁴ As discussed in greater detail below, Miramar has all the indicia of a community for FM allotment purposes.

Miramar is located within Broward County in Florida. The U.S. Census Bureau lists Miramar as a city in the 2010 Census with a population of 122,041.¹⁵ As an incorporated city, Miramar deserves the Commission’s presumption of community status.

Miramar has four unique zip codes, 33023, 33025, 33027 and 33029,¹⁶ and the U.S. Postal Service operates an office at 14900 SW 30th Street in Miramar.¹⁷ Miramar has a mayor, four Commissioners, a city manager, a city clerk, a fire chief, a police chief, and a public works director.¹⁸ The Miramar Police Department is located at 3064 N.

2.B Preferential Arrangement of Allotments

The proposed allotment of Channel 282C1 to Miramar, Florida will result in a preferential arrangement of allotments. The proposed allotment would result in a substantial net gain in in 60 dBu service. Therefore, the proposed allotment would be in the public interest.

As demonstrated in the attached Technical Exhibit, the proposed allotment would result in a substantial net gain in 60 dBu service to 1,145,119 persons in a 902 sq. km. area. Moreover, West Palm Beach and the rest of the loss area would remain abundantly well served, in that 31 protected aural services would provide service to West Palm Beach³² and at least five aural services (and in most areas many more) would provide service throughout the WEAT-FM loss area (which extends mostly over water).³³ And the proposed allotment would result in a fifth aural service to residents of an area that today receive only four services.³⁴ In a similar case, the Commission determined that the reallocation of a station would be preferential when reallocation within an urbanized area would result in a net gain in 60 dBu service to 225,855 persons, less than twenty percent of the net gain here.³⁵

³² See Technical Exhibit, Figures 10 and 11.

3. Conclusion

Grant of this application will serve the public interest because it will provide first local service at Miramar, Florida, provide substantial net gain in 60 dBu service to 1,145,119 persons. Meanwhile, West Palm Beach, Florida will retain abundantly served. These changes can be implemented smoothly with a minimum of disruption.

The City of Miramar at WIKIPEDIA

Miramar's History

The City of Miramar was incorporated May 26, 1955. At the time of incorporation, the City had a population of less than two hundred people. With approximately 2.9 square miles land area, Miramar's original city boundaries were: S.W. 64th Avenue on the east, University Drive on the West the Dade County Line on the south - Pembroke Road on the north On June 20th, 1955, the City's first Mayor and City council were sworn in, all of which were appointed by the Governor.

City's first Mayor & Councils		Mayors who served the City since
Mayor	Robert Gordon	Robert Gordon	06-1955 to 01-1959
City Council:	Stanley Beckerman	Charles Knapp	01-1959 to 02-1959
City Council:	Hyman Siegal	Samuel Winfield	04-1959 to 01-1960
City Council:	James Crum	Richard Calhoun	01-1960 to 03-1975
City Council:	Robert Anderson	Harry Rosen	03-1975 to 03-1979
		Joe Viens	03-1979 to 03-1983
		Frank Branca	03-1983 to 04-1989
		Vicki Coceano	06-1989 to 03-1999
		Lori C. Moseley	03-1999 to Present

They all served until January 1959, at which time the first municipal election was held. Robert Gordon, the first Mayor of the City, gave the City its name. “Miramar” means “Look at the Sea” in Spanish (Miramar was an exclusive suburb of Havana in pre-Castro Cuba). The City seal is inscribed with its motto “Beauty and Progress”. Charles F. Knapp was the city’s first elected Mayor. He was sworn into office one month later. The Mayors who have served the City of Miramar since that first election are listed above.

Government Structure

Currently, the City operates under the “City Manager-City Council” form of government. The City Manager is appointed by the City Commission to serve as the administrative head of the municipal government and to provide recommendations to the City Commission on policy issues. He is responsible for the daily activities of the municipal government and is charged with carrying out the policies established by the City Commission. The City Commission is elected by the residents of Miramar, and is comprised of four members and the Mayor. The City Commission sets the policies of the City through the budgetary process and enactment of ordinances and resolutions.

Until March 13, 1991, the City was governed by a “Strong Mayor-City Council” form of government. Under this form of government, the Mayor served as the Chief Administrative Officer, supervising the day-to-day activities, and was responsible for carrying out the policies established by the City Commission. All department heads were appointed by, and reported directly to the Mayor. The City Commission, through the budgetary process and enactment of legislation, functioned as the policy-making body.

In 1989, by unanimous accord of the Mayor and City Commission, the groundwork for “City Manager-City Council” form of government was begun. After many months of study and preparation, the question was put to a referendum and approved by the electorate of Miramar on March 14, 1990.

The transition in the form of government took place at 12:01 a.m. on March 13th. 1991, the day following the municipal election.

Founding of the City

Most cities have their beginnings when either one man, or group of men, venture out to “start anew” and develop their own community. Some new communities use as a basis for expansion existing rail lines, roadways, or waterways. Although Miramar was founded by one person, A.L. Mailman, its basis for development was not transportation oriented, but rather to serve as a “bedroom” community for Miami and Fort Lauderdale.

Mr. Mailman bought the original property he was to develop from H.D. Perry, Sr. in 1953. He built 56 homes on the property. These were inexpensive homes of concrete and flat roofs. These homes sold quickly because of the low cost of both the homes and the land, and the City of Miramar came into being.

As a point of information, Mr. H.D. Perry Sr.’s part in Miramar’s history did not cease with selling of the land to Mr. Mailman for development. He is recognized as one of the foremost pioneers in the history of Miramar. His character and civic-activities influenced not only the lives of early residents, but continues to the present-day, as evidenced by the schools and parks in the City which bear his family’s name. Many long-time residents fondly recall the community barbecues hosted by Mr. And Mrs. Perry during those early years. Others are grateful to Mr. Perry for the lessons in animal husbandry, which he conducted for the benefit of Miramar’s youth so that they could learn something of farm life.

The only major roads of note when Miramar was developed were U.S. 441 (a two-laned road at that time), Hallandale Beach Boulevard to 66th Terrace and Pembroke Road (which was a dirt road) to University Drive. With these exceptions, there were no transportation routes of any kind supplying access to the new community.

Although erratic expansion is common in new towns, Miramar’s early City fathers advocated the philosophy of planned and controlled growth. Miramar is considered a leader in South Florida in development of effective land use controls, having adopted a Comprehensive Land Use Plan in 1972 before cities and counties were mandated to do so. Miramar’s 1972 Comprehensive Land Use Plan and subsequent update provide the framework for the orderly development of future growth. A fact not widely known is that the residential City of Miramar is one of the largest cities in size in the State of Florida. With 2/3 of our land not yet developed, the decision to guide and control Miramar’s growth remains a wise one.

The present Administration is dedicated to preserving the character of Miramar by enhancing the quality of life in promoting and attracting development that will enrich this community without detracting from its culture and dedication to good family living. This positive meld between business and government in their mutual concern for positive development and growth in our City is producing one of the finest cities in South Florida.

Miramar Community

Situated in southwestern Broward County, Miramar is 14 miles in length from east to west and 2.5 miles in width, making it the third largest city in Broward County in terms of land size and the 5th largest city in Broward in terms of population.

Miramar has outstanding Public Safety Departments with a full-time staff of professionally trained and certified firefighters and police officers. The City has two water treatment plants, one wastewater treatment plant, and all other services necessary for the health and welfare of its residents.

Eleven elementary schools, three middle schools, two high schools, various charter schools and a special needs school are located in Miramar. As well as eight institutions of higher learning, such as Nova Southeastern University, Broward College, Ana Mendez University, DeVry University, Le Cordon Bleu, Strayer University, Concorde Institute and the University of Phoenix. The city also enjoys top flight medical treatment with Memorial Regional located within the city limits as well.

There are 22 neighborhood parks, one regional park and ten community parks in the city where athletic activities such as the following are available for sports enthusiasts: Baseball, Basketball, Football, Soccer, Handball, Racquetball, Tennis, Volleyball, Jogging, Netball, Cricket, Track & Field, and Swimming.

From the time of its founding Miramar has been and continues to be a family-oriented community. The City’s professional recreational staff plans year-round activities geared to this strong family orientation with something for everyone, from “tiny tots” to senior citizens.

Re-development is concentrated in the eastern quarter of the City, which has been largely built out since the mid-1960's. It includes several public and private projects, including redevelopment of the old City Hall into a Multi-Service Complex, infrastructure (water, sewer and drainage) improvements, the Miramar Parkway Streetscape program (new sidewalks, landscaping and pedestrian lighting), and the commercial rehabilitation program that leverages the City's Community Development Block grant funds for upgrades to existing commercial building facades.

There are many reasons Miramar has become a preferred locale for major corporations and Fortune 500 companies to call home. The City is centrally located between the Miami and Ft. Lauderdale metro areas and less than 30 minutes to the Miami and Ft. Lauderdale airports and seaports. I-75, and the Florida Turnpike are located within Miramar and I-95 and the Sawgrass Expressway are minutes away. Miramar was named among the top 100 of “America's Best Places to Live” by Money Magazine in 2006 and again in 2008; offers the largest commerce park in the region which includes a foreign trade zone; and has a highly skilled and professional workforce.

Miramar is in a unique position relative to attracting corporate relocation, small and mid-sized businesses and development. The City government is committed to ensuring the quality of life currently enjoyed by its residents and providing the opportunity for sound and managed growth.

HR FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q&A

■ What kinds of jobs are available with the City of Miramar?

The City of Miramar employs over 840 people in a variety of fields related to Community Services, Community Standards, Community Development, Finance and Administrative Services, Human Resources, Police, Public Works & Utilities, Safety and Fire Prevention, Emergency Services and many others. Applications are only accepted for positions currently announced.

■ How do I find out what career opportunities I can apply for at the City of Miramar?

When positions are available, the City of Miramar advertises available positions on this website. You may review the current JOB POSTINGS section in this website.

■ What if I am interested in a job that is not currently open?

You can complete a job interest card to be notified by email or mail when the job classification of interest is next announced. You may then submit an official application by the closing date of the announcement.

■ What happens if I missed the closing date indicated in the announcement?

Applications are only accepted during the announcement period. You may complete a job interest card to be notified when the job classification of interest is next announced.

■ How do I apply for a career opportunity?

Follow "How to Apply" instructions specified on each announcement. Depending on the position, an application and photocopies of documents will be required.

■ What is important to know about completing an application?

It is important to be as complete as possible in providing all the information required at the time of application. Be sure to specify any required degrees, graduation dates, certifications, licenses and document your work experience indicating corresponding employment dates. To be creditable, any required accredited college or university education must be verifiable from a reliable source within the United States or its territories or possessions, and information identifying that source must be submitted with the application. Additional information will not be accepted after the announcement closing date.

■ Am I eligible to receive Veteran's preference?

Veteran's preference will be granted to Florida residents in accordance with Florida law to eligible veterans and spouses of veterans. Preference points will be awarded only if copies of supporting documentation (DD-214 and/or proof of receipt of disability benefits) is provided at time of application.

■ What happens after I apply for a career opportunity?

After the closing date, applications are reviewed by a department representative. Only the most highly qualified applicants will be selected and scheduled for any examinations and/or interviews.

■ What kind of exam (s) will I be taking?

Depending on the position, the examination process may consist of one or any combination of the following: written exam, performance exam, education and experience evaluation, oral exam and/or other job related examinations. A passing grade is required on every examination. If a written and/ or performance test is required, it will be conducted by the Human Resources Department.

■ What if I need a special testing accommodation?

The City of Miramar provides necessary reasonable accommodation in the examination process upon request to persons with disabilities. Please call us at (954) 602-3800 upon submission of your application PRIOR to any scheduled examination. The Human Resources Department also maintains a telephone device for the hearing impaired at (954) 602-3802.

■ How long does the application and examination process take?

The length of time depends on the number of people who apply and the type of examination given.

■ What happens after I take a test?

Applicants that pass will be scheduled for any additional testing or will be notified in writing of final score and position on the Civil Service Register. Applicants that fail will be notified in writing.

■ When would I be considered for a position?

When a vacancy occurs, the Department Director with the vacancy must make a selection from candidates on a register. Employment is subject to the selected candidate passing a background verification and medical examination which includes a drug screening for all candidates working in safety sensitive positions.

■ What happens if I am hired?

The City of Miramar provides generous EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS to fit your needs. For benefits eligible employees, benefit eligibility begins 31 days following the date of employment.
