

Educational Statement Exhibit

Craft And Folk Art Museum (CAFAM) is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization. CAFAM's mission is dedicated to the advancement of the arts in many disciplines, including multimedia, sculpture, performance and music. Its programs have an emphasis on exhibits and workshops that are educational in nature and open to the general public. The history and background of the organization demonstrates its compliance with the education aspects that are required to qualify in the application.

Craft And Folk Art Museum provides workshops and educational activities on a regular basis. From workshops dedicated to children and teenagers, to lectures and discussions for artists, the mission of CAFAM has enriched the community via programs such as the ones listed below on our website: <http://www.cafam.org/education.html>

Our latest list of workshops include:

- Community Printmaking Sessions with Holly Jerger (Adult Art Workshop)
- Yarn Bombing Los Angeles Knit Graffiti Collective
- DIY Papermaking Workshop with Leslie K. Gray
- Needle Felting Workshop with Yuko Makuuchi
- Sound Sculptures A CraftLab Workshop: Fun for the whole family!

Craft And Folk Art Museum plans on extending its lectures, workshops, and discussions in the format of radio programs to reach a wider audience and provide a valuable tool for learning to the community. These free, widely accessible radio programs will feature a wide variety of voices from different corners of our community.
