

EXHIBIT 11

The Tuscaloosa City Board of Education is a governmental entity that is part of the Tuscaloosa City School District, which operates various elementary, middle and secondary schools and offers classes from prekindergarten through grade 12. The Tuscaloosa City Board of Education consists of more than five board members elected by district to serve four-year terms; the chairman is elected at-large to a four-year term. Its responsibilities include improving student performances, increasing student enrollment and maximizing student resources by encouraging public involvement and implementing strategies for the benefit of the district's schools.