

LICENSEE'S EXHIBIT 9

Adverse Findings

On February 24, 2006, the Media Bureau admonished Channel 39, Inc. ("Channel 39"), licensee of WSFL-TV, Miami, Florida (formerly WBZL(TV)), for violating the Commission's rules limiting the amount of commercial matter that may be aired during children's programming. See Letter from Barbara A. Kreisman, Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, to Channel 39, Inc., DA 06-406 (released Feb. 24, 2006). Channel 39 is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Tribune Broadcasting Company, which in turn is wholly-owned by Tribune Company.

In its application for renewal of license, Channel 39 stated that during the license term, there were two instances where WSFL exceeded the limits on commercial matter during children's programming. After review, the Commission granted Channel 39's renewal application and took no further action against the station.
