Within ten (10) days of receiving the Claim Notice, Donee shall notify Donor whether or not it will defend against the asserted Claim. If Donee elects not to defend against the Claim, or fails to notify Donor of its intent with ten (10) days of receiving the Claim Notice, then Donor may elect to defend against the Claim and, if it so elects, Donor shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees in accordance with the provisions of this Section 12. Each of the parties agrees to provide such reasonable assistance as may be requested by the other party in defending against the Claim, including providing reasonable access to any records and information necessary or useful for such defense.

If Donor elects not to defend against the Claim, or fails to notify Donee of its intent with ten (10) days of receiving the Claim Notice, then Donee may elect to defend against the Claim and, if it so elects, Donee shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees in accordance with the provisions of this Section 12.
