

Camilla, Georgia

A photographic look at the first 150 years

School History

Home

Historical Photos

Early Ads

Early Businesses

Early Maps

Local Art

Overview

Courthouse

Schools

Broad Street

More Broad Street

Scott Street

Train Depot

Baptist Church

Methodist Church

Presbyterian Church

Fire Department

County Jail

American Legion

Hotels and Motels

Aerial Photos

Early Homes

Parks

Unknown Photos

Historic Markers

Historic documents

Early Pelham

Camilla School 1896

This picture came from the 1957 Camilla Enterprise Centennial Edition. This school was located where the Camilla Hospital now stands.

Here is another picture of the school, this time from a 1912 postcard.

Camilla School 1904-05 Graduating Class

This is thought to be the first graduating class of the Camilla School. Included in this photo are Bessie Dixon, Lallie Wilson, Lucille Culpepper, Henrietta Brimberry, Annie Grace Brimberry, Gemmie Lou Cox, Janie Collins, Charlie McNair, W.F. Cullens, Mittie Lee Palmer, Ruth Wilson, Clara Freeman, P.E. Bailey, F.R. Hartsfield, and C.F. Brimberry. The three boys at the top are Ed Whitworth, Henry Turner Spence, and Orson Swindle. The professor B.S. Branham is at top.

Camilla Schools 1918

This is another view of the schools from 1918.

Camilla Consolidated School (1943)

Here is a view of the old Camilla Consolidated School, which later became the high school. This picture was taken about 1943.

The same school building later - in 2001