

AGREEMENTS RELATING TO STATION

In addition to the documents submitted and described in Exhibit 4, the parent company of Assignee, Aurora Broadcasting, Inc. (ABI), plans to enter into a Joint Sales and Shared Services Agreement (JSA) with Appalachian Broadcasting Corporation (Appalachian), an entity that is not a party to this application. Appalachian is a subsidiary of Bluestone Television, Inc. (Bluestone). As noted in Exhibit 4, pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement between Assignor and Bluestone, Bluestone has purchased certain of the assets used in connection with the operations of WEMT. Bluestone License Holdings Inc., which is also a subsidiary of Bluestone, is the licensee of a television broadcast station in the Tri-Cities, TN-VA DMA. The JSA has not yet been finalized or executed; however, copies will be made available to the Commission upon request. Pursuant to the JSA: (1) Appalachian will sell advertising and provide related sales and other services for WEMT; and (2) Appalachian shall have the right to provide local news and other programming to ABI, which selection for broadcast shall be within the ultimate discretion of ABI. Such programming shall comprise not more than 15% of WEMT's broadcast hours for any week.
