

Radio Training Network, Inc.
NCE Certification

Radio Training Network, Inc. ("RTN") is a 501(c)(3) organization, which will ascertain and develop educational programming for its community of license. RTN hereby certifies that the Commission has previously granted RTN a non-commercial broadcast license (see, e.g., FCC File No. BLED- 19920806KA). RTN requested non-commercial status for commercial station WVFJ-FM (Facility ID 53679), which was granted on May 10, 2011, BMLED-20110411ABY. The Commission found RTN qualified as a noncommercial educational entity with a qualifying educational program. RTN also certifies that it will use the station that it seeks to acquire pursuant to the instant application to advance a program similar to that which the Commission has found qualifying in its previous applications.
