

CERTIFICATION OF EXECUTION OF AN UNINCORPORATED ORGANIZED SELF-SUPPORTED SPIRITUAL CHURCH MINISTRY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That the parties autographing hereunder, designated as "Executive Director" and "Managing Director," herewith notice the establishment of an UNINCORPORATED ORGANIZED, SELF SUPPORTED, SPIRITUAL CHURCH MINISTRY, "Strategic International Ministries", this 1st Day of June in the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Ten, under the name of: Strategic International Ministries, hereinafter "SIM."

This Certification is attached to, incorporated within, and made fully part of DECLARATION OF SELF-SUPPORTED SPIRITUAL MINISTRY, hereinafter "Declaration," which contains specified terms and conditions that expressly state and provide that:

1. THE PURPOSE of the Ministry is for furthering the uplifting, enlightenment, spiritual realization, and general welfare of people throughout the world, the betterment of life on planet Earth, and other spiritual, humanitarian, and beneficent purposes.
2. BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT, the Executive Director and the Managing Director possess all rights necessary and sufficient for fulfilling the purpose of the Ministry and for conducting any lawful activities not specifically prohibited by Declaration and this Certification. The Executive Director and Managing Director constitute the foundational Board of Directors, hereinafter "Foundational Board," of this Ministry. In accordance with the agreement by and between the Executive Director and Managing Director, as established in Declaration, the Managing Director may act hereafter in the name of the Foundational Board and this Ministry, with or without the express, written agreement of the Executive Director. The Foundational Board may thereafter appoint directors, hereinafter "Directors," for a general Board of Directors, hereinafter "Board," for any reason believed beneficial for the Ministry.
3. DECLARATION provides and states that SIM is NOT A PUBLIC ENTITY, i.e., SIM is neither a public corporation, business, partnership, company, estate, joint stock company, trust, estate, association, nor any form of for-profit entity of any kind. SIM is created as a separate, lawful, spiritual Church ministry, non-profit, and private organization.
4. ANY DIRECTOR may serve without bonds of any nature. As living, spiritually autonomous men of sound mind and principled character, the word of each Director is his bond.
5. DIRECTORS' DUTIES consist preeminently in conserving and ministering in accordance with biblical, ethical, and spiritual principles in all ministry applications in accordance with the best of the Directors' abilities. Directors are endowed with all right and power for holding office and enjoying the absolute and exclusive management, authority, and control of property of SIM, in accordance with express agreement with the Foundational Board, for ministering the affairs of SIM, without the requirement of securing the consent of the Spiritual Church.

6. NO DIRECTOR may either declare nor pay any "income" tax, nor disburse any funds from the Ministry, except in amounts, which the Board of Directors, at the Board's sole discretion, deems appropriate for retaining services, additions, and matters needed for the benefit of the Ministry of SIM.

7. ALL DOCUMENTS, CONTRACTS, conveyances, deeds, quit-claims, assignments, assignment of any portion of the title concerning any asset/property of this Ministry, and other lawful instruments, must be executed under the name: "SIM," by a duly appointed Director in good standing. The Foundational Board possesses exclusive authority for deciding what Directors may open, and be a signatory on, bank accounts belonging to this Ministry. Any such signatory authority granted any Director must be defined and recorded in a duly executed Minute of SIM.

8. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO ALL PEOPLE, PERSONS, CORPORATIONS, ENTITIES, and all others engaging in dealings with this Ministry, such as extending credit, contracting with SIM, having claims against this Ministry, and the like, must regard only the funds, property, and other assets of this Ministry for payment and settlement of any claims, debts, judgments (decrees), awards, as well as any other obligation which may become payable there under. All actions, claims, and suits against this private Ministry MUST be adjudicated in accordance with the universal principles of contract law through affidavits sworn true, correct, and complete, and may be arbitrated only before duly appointed church tribunals in the event that the parties cannot come into accord without the aid of third parties. Directors are not personally liable when dealing with any financial or monetary matters of this Ministry nor is this Ministry liable for any property-nor for any business matters-of any Director when undertaken by said Director in personal capacity independent of SIM.

The name of the Executive Director is: John-Daniel family of Tayloe

The name of the Managing Director is: Don family of Gregg

Executive Director's Autograph:

John-Daniel family of Tayloe
Executive Director.

Date: June 3, 2010

Executive Director right thumbprint

Managing Director's Autograph:

Don family of Gregg

Date: June 3, 2010

Managing Director right Thumbprint

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Executive Director Trustee, Assistant Executive Director and Managing Director asseverate the above and hereunto set their hands and seals this 1st Day of the 6th Month in the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Ten, 690 E. Los Angeles Avenue, #285, Simi Valley, California 93065.

We, the witnesses designated hereunder, this day affirm that the ones known by us as being the avowed autographing parties appeared before us this day and acknowledged that they autographed and delivered the within CERTIFICATION OF EXECUTION OF UNINCORPORATED ORGANIZED SELF SUPPORTED SPIRITUAL CHURCH MINISTRY for the uses and purposes therein set forth. We also understand that this document, when witnessed by two or more people, becomes a lawful and binding document under biblical and universal contract law.

Executed this 1st Day of the 6th Month in the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Ten A.D.

Witness: Tom KERBER Print Witness:  Signature

237 B Highland Road East, Stony Creek, ONT L8J 3E6 CANADA.
Address:

Witness: Tom Bertha Print Witness:  Signature

11028 Fung Lane, La Mesa, CA 91941
Address:

DECLARATION OF SELF-SUPPORTED SPIRITUAL MINISTRY

For the formation of: Strategic International Ministries, SIM, AN UNINCORPORATED SPIRITUAL ORGANIZATION ESTABLISHED UNDER THE LAWS OF GOD.

The First Day of the Sixth Month in the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Ten.

CHARTER AND DECLARATION FOR AN UNINCORPORATED ORGANIZED SELF-SUPPORTED SPIRITUAL CHURCH MINISTRY EXECUTED UNDER THE LAWS OF GOD IN ACCORDANCE WITH UNIVERSAL CONTRACT LAW

PREAMBLE

This Charter and Declaration of an Unincorporated Organized Self-Supported Spiritual Church Ministry, Strategic International Church, henceforth known as SIM, is made this First Day of the Sixth Month in the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Ten, by and between Executive Director, John-Daniel family of Tayloe, and Managing Director, Don family of Gregg.

SECTION ONE

Purpose

The Self-Supported Ministry defined by this Declaration is organized for worship and for educational, spiritual, humanitarian, and beneficent purposes, and is established under the exclusive jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Law of Strategic International Ministries, hereinafter "SIM," for furthering the uplifting, enlightenment, spiritual realization, and general welfare of people throughout the World and the betterment of life on planet Earth. The formation of the offices of Executive Director and Managing Director does not incorporate the spiritual society, SIM, which must always remain un-incorporated.

SECTION TWO

Appointment and Powers of Members of the Board of Directors

A) Upon completion and the execution of this Indenture the Executive Director constitutes and appoints John: family of Tayloe, a duly ordained minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and Don: family of Gregg as the Managing Director of this un-incorporated spiritual church ministry.

B) BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT, the Executive Director and the Managing Director possess all rights necessary and sufficient for fulfilling the purpose of the Ministry and for conducting any lawful activities not specifically prohibited by this Declaration. The Executive Director and Managing Director constitute the foundational Board of Directors, hereinafter "Foundational Board," of this Ministry, which possesses authority over all affairs of this Ministry, both temporal and spiritual.

C) The foundational Board may thereafter appoint directors, hereinafter "Directors," for a general Board of Directors, hereinafter "Board," for any reason believed beneficial for the Ministry. In accordance with the agreement by and between the Executive Director and Managing Director, as established herein, the Managing Director may act hereafter in the name of the Foundational Board and this Ministry, with or without the express, written agreement of the Executive Director.

D) Any Director duly appointed by the Foundational Board may act in a fiduciary capacity as the absolute owner and possessor of title of the assets, in allodia title, and not in fee simple absolute nor as tenants in common, in accordance with the express terms and conditions set forth in a duly executed Minutes of SI. In any manner involving the Board, the Executive Director and Managing Director shall each have one vote and the remainder of the Directors act collectively for one vote, by majority vote of all the Board Members as a Board under the Church Ministry name herein designated.

E) By accepting the appointment of Director, each Director thereby accepts the provisions of this Ministry, together with all related documents. The Directors must conserve and minister in accordance with the Tenets, Creed, and Principles of SI and the principles of Higher Truth in accordance with the best of the Directors' abilities, exercising judgment and discretion in administering the Directors' duties in good faith and strictly in conformity with the provisions, spirit, and intent hereof.

F) The Directors may not be less than two in number and may be increased by the Foundational Board beyond two in number for any reason the Foundational Board believes is beneficial for the Ministry. The duly appointed Directors, together with those designated in advance for the purpose of filling future vacancies, shall hold office and collectively enjoy the absolute and exclusive management, power, and control of the properties of SI and minister affairs without any consent of the common Spiritual Church; PROVIDED, however, that any Director may resign, both with and without notice, and also may be removed from office by a Resolution of at least two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board, whenever in the opinion of said majority said Director shall have been deemed guilty of such acts that are repugnant to the tenets and precepts of this Ministry; and PROVIDED, further, that in the event of any vacancy, increase in number, or death of a Director, removal from the Board, resignation, and the like, the remaining Director of the Foundational Board, if either remains and survives, may appoint a successor and all newly appointed Directors, preferably, but not as a mandatory requirement, in concert with and in accordance with the unanimous concurrence of the Board.

G) Executing an acknowledgment of acceptance of the Office of the Board by the Managing Director constitutes investiture as such.

H) SIM is created under powers and authority of the Covenant with the Creator that each peculiar Director and Member of SIM possesses, which establishes and provides open notice of such unalienable rights as:

1. Acquiring and possessing, by donation, gift, bequest, devise, and purchase, and holding and maintaining, property-real, personal, and mixed-holding title absolute by conveyance, with right for granting, selling, conveying, renting, and otherwise disposing of said property as may be necessary for furthering the objectives of the Ministry, for the use and behoof of SIM forever, in unalloyed temporal and spiritual capacity.

2. Exercising seigniorage; borrowing and lending money; giving promissory notes as well as other written obligation therefore by note, and securing the payment thereof by a lien, such as mortgage, upon hereditaments, corporeal and incorporeal, real, personal, and mixed.
3. Buying, selling, leasing, mortgaging, and in every way dealing in land and chattels in the same manner that a natural man may, and without the order of any court.
4. Receiving bequests and devises for exclusive use of the Self-Supported Ministry in the same manner as a living, sentient man.
5. Appointing, and being appointed as, an attorney in fact.
6. Contracting and being contracted with in the same manner as a natural man, in proper capacity and full standing under the Laws of God.
7. Suing and being sued, pleading and being pleaded, in courts of competent jurisdiction.
8. Having and using a common seal by which all deeds and acts of the Ministry may be authenticated.
9. Any Director possesses authority for opening, and being a signatory on (whether exclusively or with joint signatory powers with other Directors), non-interest-bearing bank accounts of any kind whatsoever upon the express, written consent of the Managing Director, as noted and recorded in a duly authorized Minutes of SIM.
10. Exercising any other just, lawful, and ethical rights and powers as may be declared by authority of the Self-Supported Ministry, as established at any time in accordance with the Disciplines, Principles, Tenets, and Principles of the unincorporated Spiritual Society, SIM, under authority of the sovereign and unalloyed right inhering in the eternal Covenant of the each Director and Member of SIM with the Creator.
- 11) By Resolution, the Directors may provide for regular church/ministry meetings at stated intervals without notice. Special meetings may be called at any time by any two or more Directors upon three (3) days prior written notice mailed or delivered to the Directors at a meeting or by their approval of the Minutes of such meeting. At all meetings, both regular and special, a majority of the Board are regarded as constituting a quorum for the conduct of business. Affirmative action may be undertaken only upon a majority vote of all the votes held by the Board acting, whether present or absent, except that at special meetings called for a stated purpose the majority of the votes held by the Board actually present may affirmatively act regarding said stated purpose. Proxies are not allowed under any circumstance.
- J) The powers of the Managing Director and Directors, acting in concert with approval by the Managing Director, are absolute, exclusive, and unlimited, and are broadly construed as general powers of both natural and artificial inhabitants of planet Earth, under the laws of God, which permit acting in any manner that is honorable, does not cause others harm, and does not impair anyone's unalienable rights. All of said powers may be delegated at the sole discretion of the Directors. Since SIM is a worldwide ministry, people of any nationality may be appointed Directors.

K) Resolutions of the Board authorizing the undertaking of a project constitute evidence that such project is within the Board's power.

L) No one providing the Ministry donations, loans, and payments may require disclosure and accounting of the application made by the Directors of whatever funds are received by the Ministry. All funds received by the Ministry shall be managed and used at the sole discretion of the Managing Director, with or without approval of the Directors, as provided by this Declaration of Spiritual Church Ministry and recorded in the Minutes of SIM.

M) All Directors shall all serve without posting any security, such as fidelity bonds. As living, spiritually autonomous men of sound mind and principled character, the word of each Director is his bond.

N) The Directors shall regard this instrument, the Holy Bible, sacred writings and works of wisdom from diverse sources, Prayer, conscience, and the Holy Spirit as their guide, which may be supplemented upon occasion by the By-laws, Regulations, and resolutions of the Board for the purpose of covering contingencies that may arise and which shall be recorded in the Minutes of this Ministry.

O) The Directors may fix and pay reasonable compensation, (not "income"), for any contracted worker, agent, and the like, at the discretion of the Directors, and the Board may pay Directors reasonable compensation for services performed as Directors in any currency or medium of exchange concerning which the parties agree.

P) The Directors may appoint from among their number Executive Directors and Managing Directors, who shall be given such power and authority as the Minutes of this Ministry may delegate and prescribe.

Q) The Directors shall, in their capacity as Directors and NOT individually, have and assume only such liability as is defined by the Indenture of this Ministry. This fiduciary liability shall neither jeopardize nor affect the individual performance of the parties. The Directors shall be reimbursed and exonerated by this Ministry for any losses occasioned by the Directors while serving as such, in the same extent as would non-interested persons.

R) The Directors may, at any meeting, appoint a Successor Managing Director for acting on behalf of this Ministry in the event of the death, incapacity, and the like, of a current Managing Director.

S) The Directors shall have and possess only such authority as provided in this Indenture.

T) The Directors may be duly ordained and commissioned by this Ministry. A Director must be a product of a deep seated conviction with respect to God and is fully committed to seek the Truth through Prayer, the Holy Spirit, study of the Holy Bible, and otherwise. A particular Director who is ordained into this Ministry may be licensed by a state, but no such licensing is required in accordance with this Charter.

SECTION THREE

Charter of Self Supported Spiritual Church Ministry

A) It is expressly declared that this Ministry, which is neither a public corporation, business, partnership, company, estate, joint stock company, trust, estate, association, nor any form of for-profit organization of any kind, is hereby created as a separate, lawful, spiritual, non-profit, and private entity. No Director may lawfully possess any interest of this Ministry, nor may said Director be personally liable for anything other than the Director's own personal liabilities, except when an applicable civil law otherwise expressly prohibits this exoneration of the Director from personal liability.

B) The Ministry terminology used in this Indenture and its supporting documents is used solely for clarification of the various usages for Spiritual Church Ministries under universal contract law by and between free, spiritually autonomous, sentient beings whose lives and rights derive from God Almighty and the unique Covenant of each party with the Creator.

SECTION FOUR

Name, Domicile, and Offices

The Executive Director, Managing Director, and Directors may execute and convey personal property and any interest therein, sue and be sued, (see Section Six), and conduct any and all the said business of this Ministry. The principal domicile and place of ministry shall be on the soil of California, a foreign and non-domestic jurisdiction re the corporate Federal United States, (the "U.S." or "United States"), until so changed by the Board, as the Board may do upon occasion, with such branch offices and places of business as said Board may establish. As a universal spiritual ministry, the functions and holdings of the SIM may be world-wide.

SECTION FIVE

Venue and Jurisdiction

A) Neither the Managing Director, nor any Director, nor any Member, of SIM gives consent concerning, and is regarded under the laws of God as expressly immune from, any claim of jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of truth founded on the mutual good faith and full disclosure of all involved parties, universal contract law, and the Ecclesiastical law as defined, interpreted, and adjudicated by the Tribunals of SIM. Venue and jurisdiction is in the Ecclesiastical Courts of SIM, and all hearings, proceedings, and trials must be recorded in the records of the Ecclesiastical Court of SIM. All other courts of any jurisdiction must accept the decisions of the Ecclesiastical Judicatories of SIM on questions of discipline, faith, ecclesiastical rule, custom, and applicable contracts. If matters governing the affairs of this peculiar un-incorporated Spiritual Society are inconsistent on the same subject with the provisions of any other jurisdiction, the spiritual principles as a matter of conscience must prevail, inasmuch as all rights and powers of the peculiar Members of SI inhere in and derive from existence, life, and the Creator thereof. The eternal Covenant of each Director and Member of SIM with the Creator remains paramount in all matters.

B) With the intent of living in peace with all people and living beings in the Kingdom of God, each Director is established as an Ecclesiastical Emissary with neutral, in itinere, non-engaged, status, and is not involved in any manner with any disputes, conflicts, wars, and declarations of war powers involving any other parties.

C) The above-referenced peaceful, non-resident, in itinere status of each Director and Member of SIM, signifying permanent Citizenship in the Kingdom of God, is openly proclaimed before all men by use of the depiction of a scallop shell, such as the following representation:

By the authority of the eternal Covenant between each peculiar member of the Board and their uncreated Source, the Executive Director and Managing Director jointly and severally possess absolute right and power for:

Issuing for all Members of SIM any and all permits, licenses, certificates of membership, authority, identification, and travel documents of any kind whatsoever.

Terminating all involvement with, use of, and presumption of obligation for using, other documents and instruments, and all numbers and contractual relationships connected therewith, issued by any other parties, such as by an organization, agency, government, entity, corporation sole, corporation aggregate, and the like, upon signing, sealing, and notarizing this Instrument of Acknowledgment.

Creating, preserving, maintaining inviolable, and providing full and unalloyed protection and immunity of every kind whatsoever for all who seek spiritual sanctuary within, and abide on the soil of, any land, buildings, and dwellings of SI, under the exclusive venue and jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Law of SIM. Said protection and immunity secures inviolate all rights regarding privacy, security, and safety of the person, possessions, papers, and effects of guests and all household dwellers against intrusion of any kind from any source.

SECTION SIX

Authority and Capacity

Authority for establishing SIM derives exclusively from the absolute, inherent, unalienable right of the Executive Director and Managing Director, and of each peculiar Member of the un-incorporated spiritual society, SIM, in and through the life, Being, Conscience, and Consciousness of said Directors and each Member of SIM, for recognizing and proclaiming the existence of the eternal Covenant with the immortal, uncreated Source of Life of each Director and of each Member of SIM, concerning which Covenant each Director and all Members of SIM owe unalienable devotion and fidelity and are bound by conviction, creed, and commitment. No Director or Member of SIM may under any circumstances, nor for any reason, abrogate the terms of said binding, absolute, inviolable Covenant. Neither do any other parties, beings, entities, governments, corporations sole, corporations aggregate, nor any legal persons of any kind whatsoever, possess ethical and lawful authority for interfering in the relationship between any Member of SIM and God Almighty that is signified by this Declaration, in accord with the prohibition against impairing the obligation of contracts. The Directors and each Member of SIM recognize that every man and woman is a spiritually autonomous unit of free will, sovereignty, self-responsibility, and self-government, and in such capacity may live in accordance with any covenant that such autonomous beings proclaim as established with any being, entity, government, legal person, and the like. The sovereign authority and capacity of each Director and Member of SIM for affirming the existence and establishment of this Self Supported Ministry is eternally in full force and effect, i. e., nunc pro tunc "before the foundation of the world." Said Covenant is inviolate and must not be abrogated in any manner by anyone, such as on the basis of unilateral action, presumption, consensus, decree, and the like, any more than the eternal and immutable laws of existence can be invalidated by man.

As it is written:

"Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Exodus 20:3. "

"we ought to obey God rather than man", Acts 5:29.

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." Matt. 6:24.

SECTION SEVEN

Non-Liability of Members of the Board

No Member of the Board may under any circumstances be held liable for liabilities of this Ministry. All people and persons dealing with this Ministry may address only funds and assets of SIM for the payment of any claim, debt, judgment, obligation, as well as of any "money," that may become due and payable in any way regarding SIM. All actions, claims, and suits MUST be adjudicated in the Tribunals of SIM as set forth in this Declaration.

SECTION EIGHT

Assets

All hereditaments and possessions of SIM are the property of God Almighty, the Creator of heaven and earth, and are held, utilized, and developed under the principle of stewardship by the Directors for the perpetual use, purpose, benefit, behest, and behoof of the peculiar Membership of this un-incorporated Spiritual Society, SIM. If at some particular time there is no peculiar Member of SIM holding Office of a Director, all assets are re-vested with the un-incorporated Spiritual Society, SIM.

SECTION NINE

Distributions

A) The Board may set aside any net, non-taxable increase accruing in favor of this Ministry in amounts that the Board, in the Board's sole discretion, deems appropriate for retaining reserves and additional assets of this Ministry.

B) Since this Ministry is a world-wide in scope, the Board may set aside such funds for providing spiritual and humanitarian benefit as the Board may decide.

SECTION TEN

Execution of Contracts

Each Director, in accordance with the written agreement between the Foundational Board, and as recorded in a duly executed Minutes of SIM, possesses authority for executing all documents and instruments, such as contracts, conveyances, deeds, quitclaims, assignments, assignment of any part of the title on assets and property of this Ministry.

SECTION ELEVEN

Succession

A) By execution of this Indenture the undersigned Executive and Managing Directors, and every Successor in Office by the same Title, do hereby create and establish a body politic and a Self-Supported Ministry, with continuous perpetual succession.

B) In accordance with the disciplines of this un-incorporated Spiritual Society, SIM, any vacancy occurring in the incumbency of SIM must be filled through an appointment by majority vote of the remaining Directors. Every Successive Holder of Office allows for perpetuity of the office of Director of SIM.

SECTION TWELVE

Acting as Guarantor

The Board may upon occasion pledge the assets of the Ministry as Guarantor for any person, company, and other legal entity, provided the Ministry receives reasonable compensation for such action.

SECTION THIRTEEN

Notice of Limited Liability

Notice is hereby given that all people, persons, and entities who extend this Ministry credit, contracting with SIM, as well as having claims against this Ministry, may regard only the property and other assets of this Ministry for payment and for settlement of any claims, debts, judgment (decree), award, and other obligation that may become payable there under. The Directors are not personally liable when dealing with any business matters of this Ministry.

SECTION FOURTEEN

Covenants

SIM, the un-incorporated Spiritual Society, establishes for this Ministry a Covenant of Silence. This Covenant of Silence is between the Holder of Office and the peculiar Members dealing in any secular and spiritual relationship, document, and matter involved in the relationship between the parties, which is considered private and consecrated. The Directors and all Directors affirm acceptance of the Covenant of Silence until death.

SECTION FIFTEEN

Termination

Upon the termination of this Ministry for any cause, the Board may liquidate the estate of the Ministry, if deemed preferable, by disposing of its properties and assets for such amounts and upon such terms as the Board deems prudent, with the required consent of the Managing Director. After discharging all proper lawful obligations of this Ministry, the Board shall distribute in favor of other Spiritual Ministries-with goals compatible with the principles and purposes of SIM -the proceeds and remaining assets in any currency the Board deems appropriate. For these purposes, the Directors shall continue acting until such duties have been fully performed, whereupon this Ministry shall be finally closed.

SECTION SIXTEEN

Interpretation, Disputes and Claims

A) Regarding any question concerning interpretation and construction of this Indenture and Declaration of Spiritual Church Ministry, including all supporting documents, the Board retains exclusive authority for construing this instrument in accordance with its good-faith construction. Said construction, as stated in the Minutes, shall be final, conclusive, and binding on this Ministry, as well as all other people, persons, and entities dealing herewith.

B) Neither this Indenture nor its supporting documents may in any manner be deemed as constituting any kind of PUBLIC corporation, profitable business, partnership, statutory trust, association, estate, company, public entity, nor any kind of statutory entity. This Charter is intended as being an Indenture creating a PRIVATE Spiritual Church Ministry. All interpretations shall be under the Laws of God as interpreted and adjudicated by the Tribunals of SIM. For Guidance, all concerned parties, including arbitration tribunals and courts, may consult appropriate court rulings concerning integrated auxiliaries of a Spiritual Church/Ministry of this type.

SECTION SEVENTEEN

Savings Clause

If any provision of this Declaration of Spiritual Church Ministry is deemed invalid by competent authority for any reason under particular circumstances, the remaining provisions shall nevertheless stand and remain in full force and effect

Strategic International Ministries

Tenets, Creed, and Principles

The spiritual Tenets, Creed, and Principles of SIM are as follows:

1. Existence and life are of divine origin and nature and all unalienable rights of man inhere therein and derive therefrom.
2. Each man or woman is unique, of unfathomable inner depth and configuration, and the unit of experience and free will with absolute, sovereign right of self-ownership.
3. Man's sovereignty derives from the Supreme Creator God, the Ultimate Sovereign, and inheres in the union of existence and individual free will.
4. Awe and wonder for the Source of life, and reverence, respect, and non-harmfulness for the endless diverse expressions of life, constitute the foundation of justice and peace in human society.
5. Truth is supreme in the life of man, without genuine knowledge and clear perception of which man necessarily lives in ignorance and delusion, resulting in confusion, suffering, and eventual destruction due to acting in error.
6. Freedom is an unalienable right and a universal aspect of man's true nature, essential for full exercise of faculties and for the infinite diversity of existence to manifest itself. Freedom is necessary for happiness, learning, self-actualization, and fulfillment.
7. No man, woman, or institution is the source of creation of the life of another or has any a priori claim on said life. For anyone, operating on his own or through constructed institutions, to presume to have title or right to dominate the life of anyone who does not contract voluntarily, willingly, and knowingly to become a party or subject to the claim is criminal usurpation of man's free will, which even God does not exercise. The convictions, beliefs, life styles, creeds, and religious practices are entirely the concern of each man and remain inviolate unless said convictions and practices injure or defraud another against his will.
8. When someone injures or defrauds another he loses, i.e. "places a cloud on," his sovereignty to the extent necessary to make recompense for the damages, which "cloud" remains until the obligation is satisfied. Force is morally valid only when utilized for last-resort self-defense, defense of family or another human being or to the minimal extent necessary to cause a transgressor to provide restitution to those whom he wronged.

9. In a sound society people live and accumulate wealth and property on the basis of free, open, mutually voluntary exchanges in which all parties are bettered in the unique terms of each party. Since the right of self-ownership is absolute, so is one's ownership of all property acquired through honorable labor, i.e. "A workman is worthy of his hire." Wealth acquired in such constructive and honorable ways is allodial and cannot be justly rendered subject to any external claims.

10. No burden of proof falls on anyone who innocently asserts or seeks to enjoy his life, rights, freedom, or property. One who attempts to deprive another of life, rights, freedom, or property incurs the obligation of substantiating the ethical, moral, and lawful basis for any such invasive or aggressive action.

11. Members of SIM are "in the world but not of it," and seek to live by respect, non-harmfulness, unconditional love, scrupulous neutrality, non-contention, non-intervention with beings that one himself did not create and does not own, and non-involvement with affairs which are not the just province and concern of oneself.

12. SIM is established in accordance with timeless and universal maxims of law which include, but are not limited to:

- "An act done by me against my will is not my act." Brac. 101 b
- Consent makes the law. (A contract is law between the parties agreeing to be bound by it.)" Branch, Princ.; 8 Mont. 32.
- "One who exercises jurisdiction out of his territory cannot be obeyed with Impunity." 10 Co. 77; Dig. 2. 1.20; Story, Conti. Laws § 539; Broom, Max. 100, 101
- "Good faith must be observed." 1 Metc. Mass. 551; 23 id.; 521.
- "In favor of life, liberty, and innocence, all things are to be presumed." Lofft. 125
- "The contract makes the law" 22 Wend. 215, 233.
- "Freedom does not admit of valuation." Bracton 14.
- "The form of agreement and the convention of the parties overrule the law." 13 Pick. 491; Broom, Max, 689 et seq.; 2 Co 73; 22 N.Y. 252.
- "To lie is to go against the mind." 3 Bulstr. 260.
- "He who stands on his own rights injures no one." 41 La. Ann. 194; 48 id. 1389.
- "No man can forfeit another's right." Fleta, 1. 1, c. 28, §11.
- "Power ought to follow, not to precede, justice." 3 Bulstr. 199.
- "Whatever is against the rule of right is wrong." 3 Bulstr. 313.
- "What is mine cannot be taken away without my consent." Jenk.Cent. 251.
- Rights never die."

13. The law of karma (action/reaction) is inviolate. Existence is a cause/effect coherence in which all actions and processes contain the inexorable and exact consequences of themselves, i.e. one "reaps what he sows." It is essential to one's survival and self-interest to refrain from harming others and to be as beneficial and constructive as possible. "He who helps others helps himself," and conversely, "One who harms others harms himself."

14. God's purpose is that man realizes himself as an aspect of God and experiences ever fuller glory. There is nothing else for one's soul to do, or that one's soul wants to do. The more of that unbounded glory one realizes, the more one can become and can yet be, without limit or end. There is nothing that one cannot be, do, know, or have.

15. The goal of life is its own fulfillment. To that end the essentials of life must be fulfilled. These include the actualization of one's talents and life work for the betterment of self, mankind, and creation, the health of the body, material well being, rewarding social relationships, ever greater fellowship with the Creator, and becoming increasingly conscious of consciousness. To fulfill the essentials of life brings happiness; not fulfilling them brings unhappiness.

-- Amen --