<sup>1</sup> Because there is no debt that would cause any otherwise non-attributable party to acquire attributable status as a result of operation of the "equity-debt-plus" rule (47 C.F.R. § 73.3555, Note 2(h)), percentage of capital contribution is reported for each LLC member or shareholder reported throughout this form (i.e., the ratio of the member's or shareholder's capital contribution to the total capital contributions to the entity from all members or shareholders).
