

Exhibit 2

Transferor certifies that use of FCC Form 316 is appropriate for these transactions. This Application requests consent to the following changes in the structure of Great Scott Broadcasting (“GSB”), which will result from the resignation of Bernard Eizen as trustee for various related trusts as indicated:

- Bernard Eizen will resign as co-trustee of the Marital Trust, a trust established under a deed of trust dated November 6, 1981. James Worthington will replace Bernard Eizen as co-trustee of the Marital Trust. The Marital Trust holds all of the issued and outstanding stock (100% of the votes and 100% of the total assets) of Great Scott Communications, Inc. (“GSCI”). GSCI owns a 1% partnership interest in, is the sole general partner of, and controls 100% of the votes of GSB. Faye Scott and James Worthington, as co-trustees, will hold the exclusive right to vote the Marital Trust’s voting stock interest in GSCI. Faye Scott is President, Treasurer, and a director of GSCI. James Worthington’s qualifications were passed upon by the Commission in a long form application filed by GSB on March 27, 2003 (File No. BTC-20030327AHJ) and granted by the Commission on May 30, 2003. See Public Notice, Daily Digest, Vol. 22, No. 106, at 47. GSB’s sole general partner will be controlled by two trustees whose qualifications have already been passed upon by the FCC.
- Bernard Eizen will resign as co-trustee of the Family Trust, a trust established under a deed of trust dated November 6, 1981. Charles Mott will replace Bernard Eizen as a co-trustee of the Family Trust. The Family Trust holds a 92% non-insulated limited partnership interest in GSB, which represents 86.72% of the total assets (equity plus debt) of GSB. Faye Scott in her capacity as Special Trustee and Charles Mott and James Worthington, as co-trustees of the Family Trust will hold jointly the exclusive right to vote the Family Trust’s partnership interest in GSB. In other words, 66.66% of the voting interest in the Family Trust will continue to be held by trustees whose qualifications have already been passed upon by the Commission.
- Bernard Eizen will resign as co-trustee of the Faye Scott Annuity Trust, a trust established under a deed of trust dated March 6, 2002. Charles Mott will replace Bernard Eizen as trustee of the Faye Scott Annuity Trust, which holds a 7% non-insulated limited partnership interest in GSB, which represents 6.64% of the total assets of GSB. Charles Mott and James Worthington, as co-trustees, will hold jointly the exclusive right to vote the Faye Scott Annuity Trust’s partnership interest in GSB.
