In addition, JBC and its subsidiary, Journal Broadcast Group, Inc. (“JBG”), entered into an asset purchase agreement pursuant to which JBC and JBG agreed to acquire substantially all of the assets of KWBA(TV), Facility ID No. 35095, Sierra Vista, Arizona. The Commission has approved the assignment of KWBA to JBC, See FCC File No. BALCT-20080320AEY, and JBC anticipates that the acquisition will be consummated following the satisfaction of the conditions specified in the purchase agreement.

JBG is also the time-broker of WACY(TV), Facility ID No. 361, Appleton, WI pursuant to a television affiliation agreement dated June 7, 1993, as amended.

Jeanette Tully, a director of Journal Communications, Inc.,¹ is the trustee of The Aloha Station Trust (the “Trust”). The Commission approved the assignment of various radio station licenses to the Trust in Existing Shareholders of Clear Channel Communications, Inc. (Transferors) and Shareholders of Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund VI, L.P., Bain Capital (CC) IX, L.P., and BT Triple Crown Capital Holdings III, Inc. (Transferee), 43 CR 1062 (January 24, 2008). Neither Journal Communications, Inc. nor any of its subsidiaries hold FCC television or radio broadcast licenses in markets where the Trust will hold radio broadcast licenses.
