MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

The following provisions are inserted for the management and conduct of the affairs of the corporation, and the same are in furtherance of and not in limitation or exclusion of the powers conferred by law:

A. Transactions with Interested Persons: No contract or other transaction between the corporation and one or more of its directors, officers, or other agent, or between the corporation and any other corporation, company, partnership, association, or other entity or organization in which one or more of its directors, officers, or other agents are directors, managers, officers, or other agents, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable, be enjoined, be set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation, solely because of the fact such contract or transaction involves a director, officer, or other agent, or an entity in which a director, officer, or other agent has any interest, or solely because the director, officer, or other agent is present at or participates in the meeting of the board of directors, or committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction, or solely because such director's vote is counted for such purpose, if: (i) the material facts as to the director's officer's, or other agent's relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or committee, and the board or committee in good faith authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors are less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to director's, officer's, or other agent's relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the members entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically authorized, approved or ratified in good faith by vote of the members; or (iii) the contract or transaction was fair as to the corporation at the time of authorization. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of the quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or the committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction.

B. Indemnification: The corporation shall indemnify, to the maximum extent permitted by law, any person who is or was a director, officer, agent, fiduciary or employee of the corporation, against any claim, liability, or expense arising against or incurred by such person who, as a result of actions or inactions reasonably taken or not taken by such person in such capacity in representing the corporation or at the direction of the corporation, is made a party to a proceeding. The corporation shall have the additional authority to the full extent permitted by law to indemnify all such persons against any claim, liability or expense arising against or incurred by them in all other circumstances. The corporation shall further have the authority to the maximum extent permitted by law to purchase and maintain insurance providing such indemnification.

C. Limitation of Director/Officer Liability: To the fullest extent permitted by law, a director or officer of this corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer. Neither the amendment nor repeal of this provision, nor the adoption of any other provision inconsistent with this provision, nor any other action by the corporation, board of directors, or otherwise, shall eliminate or reduce the protection afforded by this provision to a director or officer of the corporation with respect to any matter which occurred, or any cause of action, suit, or claim which but for this provision would have accrued or arisen, prior to such amendment, repeal, adoption, or other action.

Dated this 12th day of February, 2001.
