

Calvary Chapel of Hope - Statement of Educational Objectives

Calvary Chapel of Hope is a non-stock, non-profit corporation chartered under the laws of the State of New York, and is tax-exempt pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Calvary Chapel of Hope is a church who sees one of its prime purposes as educating people. Calvary Chapel of Hope operates a church with a Christian educational system in North Amityville, New York. This educational system includes numerous weekday meetings and Sunday morning services that serve people of all ages. We provide numerous special services with guest speakers from various fields of study. Calvary Chapel provides college extension classes in association with Calvary Chapel Bible College. Calvary Chapel of Hope educates approximately 75-100 students from Pre-K to grade 12 with moral and religious teaching. Calvary Chapel of Hope's educational system addresses adult social problems such as divorce, mental illness, child abuse, teen pregnancy, alcoholism and drug abuse.

Calvary Chapel of Hope's objective in acquiring the Long Island New York station is to teach the Gospel of Jesus Christ and thereby spread redemption, hope and social progress in the areas outlined above. Radio stations will expand the reach of our educational programs, particularly those geared to adults. It will provide a means to share the gospel of hope as well as counsel and encourage those in need in the surrounding area.

Using radio will permit Calvary Chapel of Hope to advance its objectives by putting to work its considerable educational talents and capabilities to address moral and religious subjects outside the standard church and classroom setting, and otherwise on a far broader scale.

It will be our policy to provide the highest quality programming, stressing spiritual and moral values. Programs and messages will be responsive to the problems, needs and interests of the community of license and service area. Our programming will be in good taste and suitable for listeners of all ages. All programming will help fulfill our educational objectives, and radio station operations will be conducted on a non-commercial basis.
