

No population in 100 dBu interfering contour

The map below shows the 100 dBu 50/10 contour of the proposed minor modification.

There are no structures or population within the contour; the Bureau of Land Management controls most of it.

On that basis the applicant believes that there is no interference caused to 2nd or 3rd adjacent channel stations and requests waiver of the interference rules to permit the grant of this application.

