

EXHIBIT 3

Environmental Considerations

Prepared by Guy Smith in connection with reduced power STA for KLBB-FM

A grant of this application will have no negative environmental effects as the application proposes only to reduce power levels to existing antennas temporarily while workers are on the tower performing major modifications necessitated by the the TV band repack. The ground level radiation levels have been measured and found to be in compliance with OSHA standards and FCC regulations.