Pending Applications in Which Character Issues Have Been Raised

Character allegations have been raised in a petition to deny filed on September 1, 2004 by Right to Decency, Inc. and the American Decency Association (“Petitioners”) against the application for renewal of license (FCC File No. BRH-20040601BHZ) of WKRK-FM, Detroit, Michigan, a station that is under common ownership with the Applicant. Petitioners suggest that the licensee of WKRK-FM lacks the basic character qualifications to be a Commission licensee because of alleged violations of the Commission’s rule on the broadcast of indecent material.
