Disclosure Regarding Non-Exempt Officers and Directors

Responsibility for WCP 2002, LLC voting and disposition of the interests in Three Eagles Communications (the “Investment”) lies with WCP 2002, LLC. Wachovia Investors, Inc. (“WI, Inc.”), which is a member of WCP 2002, LLC, and Wachovia, which as noted above is WCP 2002, LLC’s ultimate corporate parent, are reported as attributable parties in connection with WCP 2002, LLC. Neither WI, Inc. nor Wachovia had or has any involvement with the acquisition, voting or disposition of the Investment interest.

The officers and directors of Wachovia and WI, Inc., except for certain of those listed in Exhibits 11b(i) and 11b(ii), have duties and responsibilities wholly unrelated to the media business of WCP 2002, LLC. WCP 2002, LLC has reported information for all officers of Wachovia and WI, Inc. who may be regarded as being in the reporting chain from WCP 2002, LLC through to Wachovia. WCP 2002, LLC also is reporting information for each of the directors of those same Entities together with the other media interests of the non-exempt officers and directors. This approach is consistent with the Commission’s policies for the reporting of officer and director interests for multi-faceted financial entities. See WTVY-TV, Dalton, Alabama, Letter of Barbara Kreisman, Chief, Video Services Division, dated March 16, 1993 (Ref. 1800E1-AEG).
