

The Minot Peak transmitter site is inaccessible to the general public. There is a gate on the access road. The site is totally enclosed by chain-link fence with a locked gate. The site is posted with Radio-frequency warning signs on the fence and on the building. This is an isolated mountaintop site owned by Weyerhaeuser Company.

William J. Wolfenbarger
President
Jodesha Broadcasting, Inc

11-1-01
Date