

ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE AGREEMENT

Amigos Ministry. ("AM"), 801 Lilac Drive; Enid, OK 73701 holds a license to operate KAMG-LP, 92.1 FM Enid, OK (FID 123923).

AM requests FCC permission to transfer the license to:
Maranatha Radio Corporation ("MRC") 322 West Poplar; Enid, OK 73701.

A. This transfer request meets all FCC requirements:

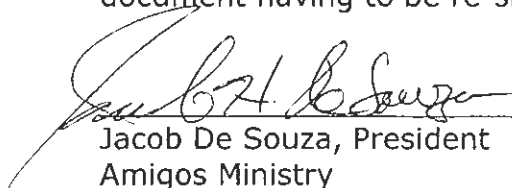

1. Purpose of transfer. AM obtained a full-power CP (FID 174248 BNPED 20071012AHO) and is divesting its LPFM license as required by the FCC
2. Financial qualification. No compensation of any type has been made, nor promised, for the license, nor for any assets of the station.
3. The transfer is local. The headquarters of both parties are within ten miles of each other.
4. Neither MRC, nor its board members, have any interest in any other LPFM station, nor any other media interest.
5. MRC will continue commitments made by AM to air "eight or more hours daily of local programming."
6. The "three-year requirement" for LPFM assignments has been met. KAMG-LP was granted its license on Feb 27 2007.

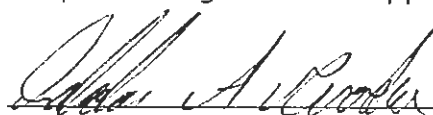

B. MRC's educational purpose is to broadcast:

1. Programs for specific audiences such as seniors, youth, children, and ethnic groups
2. Local news and weather
3. Public safety announcements and warnings from local government.
4. School weather closings, etc.
5. Educational programs covering morals, family issues, finances, government, and science
6. Church services, activities, community service, and charity events

Both parties agree that any minor changes required by the FCC will be made to this application without this agreement having to be re-signed.

This is the complete agreement between the parties; signed November 1, 2010. If the FCC requires any minor changes, these can be made without this document having to be re-signed. Expedited processing would be appreciated.
