(A) The Radio Assets shall include all personal property, rights, contracts, liabilities and obligations utilized in the 'Ordinary Course of Business' (i.e., the ordinary course of the Stations' business consistent with past practices). The Radio Assets shall specifically:

- (1) include the real property, personal property, tower leases, equipment buildings, broadcasting contracts, broadcast rights, client advertising contracts, accounts receivable, liabilities and obligations;
- (2) include all governmental licenses which include any franchises, approval, certificates, authorizations, permits, rights and applications used in the Ordinary Course of Business of the Radio Stations.

- (D) Without Buyer's written consent, Seller shall not cause any Radio Station to take any action outside the Ordinary Course of Business.
- (E) Without Buyer's written consent, Seller shall not negotiate or agree to transfer ("Transfer", including sales, assignments, conveyances, pledges, encumbrances, liens or any other transfer) any Radio Assets.

- (F) Without Buyer's written consent, Seller shall not permit the Transfer of any of Seller's capital stock or other equity interests.

7. Force Majeure. Except as herein provided to the contrary, neither Buyer nor Seller shall have any rights against the other Party hereto for failure or delay in the performance of a required obligation if such failure or delay is caused by an act of God; inevitable accident; fire; lockout; flood; tornado; hurricane; strike or other labor dispute; riot or civil commotion; earthquake; war; act of government or governmental instrumentality (whether federal, state or local); failure of performance by a common carrier; failure in whole or in part of technical facilities; or other cause (financial inability excepted) beyond such Party's reasonable control.
