AGREEMENT

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing Recitals (which are by this reference incorporated herein as an integral part of this Agreement) and the mutual covenants contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties intending to be bound hereby agree as follows:

SECTION 1. THE LOAN

1.1 The Loan. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, collectively Lenders agree to lend to Borrowers, and Borrowers agree to borrow from Lenders funds totaling an amount of Five Million Five Hundred Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($5,575,000) (the “New Money”) which shall be disbursed to the Parent by each Lender in such amount as indicated opposite its name on Exhibit D hereto, to be used by Borrowers as specified in Section 1.4 hereof. In connection with the lending of the New Money, the Parent shall execute secured promissory notes in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit E (the “New Notes”) payable to each Lender in such amount as set forth opposite its name on Exhibit D hereto. The New Notes along with the Replacement Notes shall be referred to collectively herein as the “Notes”. The New Money and Initial Money shall be referred to herein collectively as the “Loan”.

1.2 Interest Rate. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Notes, the Loan shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum, compounded monthly, to be paid as set forth herein. In the event of a Payment Default as defined in Section 14.1(b) of this Agreement, the interest rate on the outstanding principal balance of the Loan will increase to seventeen percent (17%) per annum, compounded monthly, as of the date of said event of Payment Default (the “Default Rate”) for so long as such Payment Default continues, regardless of whether or not there has been an acceleration of the indebtedness evidenced by the Notes.

1.3 Repayment of the Loan.

(a) Year 1 and 2 Deferred Interest. Prior to a Payment Default, the Notes shall accrue interest from the date hereof at a rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum compounded monthly; provided however, the interest accruing during the first twenty-four (24) months of the term of the Notes shall be deferred, accrued and added monthly in arrears on the first day of each calendar month to the principal amount of the Loan and thereafter on the New Principal Amount with the face amount of the Notes to be deemed increased accordingly each month by such amount (at each such occasion, the “New Principal Amount”).

(b) Year 3 and 4 Interest Only Payments. Prior to a Payment Default, during the next twenty-four (24) months of the term of the Notes, interest only payments shall be due and payable to Lenders monthly in arrears on the first day of each calendar month at a rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum compounded monthly; provided that such payment shall only be required to be made only if the cash balance for the Parent remains above $600,000 after said interest payment has been made. In the event an interest payment pursuant to this subsection

1.3(b) is not required to be made because of cash balance of the Parent, such interest payment shall be due with the next interest payment required under this subsection, subject to the cash balance test set forth in this section. The interest only payments shall reflect the New Principal Amount of the Notes.

(c) Year 5 Full Repayment of Loan. On the day following the fourth (4th) anniversary of the date hereof, Borrower shall pay any penalties, and all outstanding principal and any interest accrued but unpaid on the Notes to Lenders (the “Maturity Date”).

(d) General Provisions and Prepayment. All interest shall be computed for actual days elapsed on the basis of a 360-day year. In computing interest on the Notes, the date of funding of the Loan shall be included and the date of payment shall be excluded so long as such payment is received before 2:00pm Eastern Time on the date when due. In the event the date of funding is other than the first day of a calendar month, interest for that portion of the partial month that the Notes are outstanding shall be added to the first interest payment due under the Notes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Borrowers shall be permitted to prepay any interest or principal outstanding under the Notes at any time, and from time to time, in full or in part without fee, penalty, or charge; provided however, such prepayments shall be in increments equivalent to no less than (10%) ten percent of the original Loan amount and shall be paid to all Lenders, pro rata in proportion to their contribution to the original Loan amount.

1.4 Use of the Loan Proceeds. Borrowers shall use the proceeds of the Loan as set forth on Schedule 1.4 hereto. Any remaining amount of the Loan shall be used as working capital to finance the day-to-day operations of the Stations.

SECTION 2. SECURITY

Repayment of the indebtedness evidenced by the Notes and all other indebtedness of Borrowers to Lenders, and performance of all other obligations under the Notes and under this Agreement shall be secured by:

(a) the following Pledge Agreements: (i) by and among all of the members of the Parent for the benefit of Lenders; and (ii) by and among all of the members or shareholders, as applicable, of every other Borrower for the benefit of Lenders in the form of Exhibit E hereto (the “Pledge Agreements”).

(b) Except as set forth in on Schedule 2(b) hereto, a second lien on all currently owned and hereafter acquired assets of Borrowers used or useful in connection with the ownership and operation of the Stations, consisting of both tangible and intangible personal property and fixtures of Borrowers, including any furniture, furnishings, equipment, inventory and receivables, to be evidenced by a security agreement (the “Security Agreement”) in favor of Lenders in the form of Exhibit G hereto, and by such Uniform Commercial Code financing statements as may be requested by Lenders from time to time. The lien referred to in this subsection (b) shall be junior only to: (i) the lien held by the Senior Lender on all the assets of Borrowers and (ii) those liens in such amounts set forth on Schedule 2(b). Subject to the rights held by Senior Lender and those parties in the amounts set forth on Schedule 2(b), proceeds from any sale of the assets secured hereby, other than sales in the ordinary course of business, shall be applied first toward reducing the indebtedness under the Notes.

(c) Deeds of trust on the real property owned by OT Georgia and OT Mississippi and Collateral Assignment of Leases in the form of Exhibit F for each of the towers leased by a Borrower in connection with the operation of a Station.

All agreements and instruments described or contemplated in this Section 2, together with any and all other security agreements and other agreements and instruments heretofore or hereafter described securing the Notes and the obligations of Borrowers hereunder or otherwise executed in connection with this Agreement, shall in all respects be reasonably acceptable to Lenders and their counsel in form and substance. Such agreements and instruments, as the same may be amended from time to time, are sometimes hereinafter referred to collectively as the “Security Documents” and individually as a “Security Document”. For so long as the Notes are outstanding, Borrowers agree to take such action as Lenders may reasonably request from time to time to cause Lenders to be secured at all times as required by this Section 2, and Lenders’ security interests to be perfected at all times, including, but not limited to, executing any and all Security Documents necessary to perfect Lenders’ security interest in any hereafter acquired property of Borrowers.

There is no breach or event of default by any Borrower, or to the knowledge of any Borrower, of any other party under any Material Contract and to Borrowers’ knowledge, there exists no condition or event which will result in a violation or breach of, or constitute a default under, any such Material Contract. of the Parent and the other Borrowers under agreements disclosed pursuant to paragraph (c) below) has any rights to any of the Intellectual Property owned or used by any Borrower, and, to the Parent's best knowledge, no other Person is infringing, violating or misappropriating any of the Intellectual Property that any Borrower owns. For purposes of this Agreement, "Intellectual Property" means any intellectual property, including (i) patents, patent applications, patent disclosures and all related continuation, continuation-in-part, divisional, reissue, reexamination, utility model, certificate of invention and design patents, patent applications, registrations and applications for registrations, (ii) trademarks, service marks, trade dress (including Internet domain registrations), logos, trade names and corporate names and registrations and applications for registration thereof, (iii) copyrights and registrations and applications for registration thereof, (iv) computer software (in both source code and object code form), data and documentation, (v) trade secrets and confidential business information, whether patentable or unpatentable and whether or not reduced to practice, know-how, manufacturing and production processes and techniques, research and development information, copyrightable works, financial marketing and business data, pricing and cost information, business and marketing plans and customer and supplier lists and information, and (vi) other proprietary rights relating to any of the foregoing.

(b) To the Parent's best knowledge, none of the activities or business conducted by any Borrower or currently proposed to be conducted by any Borrower infringes, violates or constitutes or will infringe, violate or constitute (including after the consummation of the acquisition of the KNOU assets) a misappropriation of (or in the past infringed, violated or constituted a misappropriation of) any Intellectual Property of any other Person. Neither the Parent nor any other Borrower has received any complaint, claim or notice alleging any such infringement, violation or misappropriation, and, to the best knowledge of the Parent, there is no basis for any such complaint, claim or notice.

(c) Schedule 4.16(c) identifies each (i) patent that has been issued or assigned to any Borrower with respect to any of its Intellectual Property, (ii) pending patent application that any Borrower has made with respect to any of its Intellectual Property, (iii) copyright or trademark registration or application with respect to any Intellectual Property of any Borrower, and (iv) license or other agreements pursuant to which any Borrower has granted any rights to any third party with respect to any of its Intellectual Property.

(d) Schedule 4.16(d) identifies each agreement with a third party pursuant to which any Borrower has obtained rights to Intellectual Property (other than software that is generally commercially available) that is owned by a party other than the Parent or any other Borrower. Such agreements are valid and binding obligations, enforceable in accordance with their terms, and to the knowledge of Borrowers, there exists no condition or event which will result in a violation or breach of, or constitute a default under, any such agreement. Except as set forth on Schedule 4.16(d), and other than license fees for software that is generally commercially available, neither the Parent nor any other Borrower is obligated to pay any royalties or other compensation to any third party in respect of its ownership, use or license of any of its Intellectual Property.

(e) Each Borrower has taken reasonable precautions (i) to protect its rights in its Intellectual Property and (ii) to maintain the confidentiality of its trade secrets, know-how and other confidential Intellectual Property, including requiring third parties having access thereto to execute confidentiality agreements. No material trade secret has been disclosed to any third party other than pursuant to a confidentiality agreement that adequately protects such Borrower's proprietary interest therein. There have been no acts or omissions by the officers, directors, shareholders and employees of any Borrower the result of which would be to compromise the rights of the Parent or any other Borrower to apply for or enforce appropriate legal protection of its Intellectual Property.

(f) All of the Intellectual Property of Borrowers has been created by employees of Borrowers, within the scope of their employment by Borrowers or by independent contractors of Borrowers who have executed agreements expressly assigning all right, title and interest in such Intellectual Property to Borrowers or has been acquired by a Borrower pursuant to executed agreements expressly assigning all right, title and interest in such Intellectual Property to the Borrower. No portion of the Intellectual Property of any Borrower was jointly developed with any third party. No employee of any Borrower is obligated under any contract (including licenses, covenants, or commitments of any nature) or other agreement, or subject to any judgment, decree, or order of any court or governmental authority, that would interfere with the use of such employee's best efforts to promote the interests of such Borrower or that would conflict with the business of Borrowers as currently proposed to be conducted. None of the execution or delivery of this Agreement, or the carrying on of the business of Borrowers by the employees of Borrowers, or the conduct of the business of Borrowers as currently proposed, will conflict with or result in a breach of the terms, conditions, or provisions of, or constitute a default under, any contract, covenant, or instrument under which any of such employees is now obligated. It will not be necessary to use any inventions of any of Borrowers' employees (or Persons it currently intends to hire) made prior to their employment by Borrowers.

4.17 Government Licenses and Permits. Each Borrower validly holds or has applied for all material licenses, franchises, permits and other governmental authorizations necessary to continue the conduct of its business as presently conducted.

4.18 F.C.C. Authorizations.

(a) Schedule 4.18 lists all the permits, licenses, and authorizations held by Borrowers ("F.C.C. Authorizations"). The F.C.C. The F.C.C. Authorizations are valid and in full force and effect and unimpaired by any condition which could have a Material Adverse Effect on the business and operations of the Stations. Except as set forth on Schedule 4.18, no application, action or proceeding is pending for the renewal or modification of any of the F.C.C. Authorizations, and, except for actions or proceedings affecting radio broadcast stations generally and the proceedings set forth on Schedule 4.18, no application, complaint, action or proceeding is pending or, to the Parent's best knowledge, threatened that may result in (i) the revocation, modification, non-renewal or suspension of any of the F.C.C Authorizations, (ii) the issuance of a cease-and-desist order, or (iii) the imposition of any administrative or judicial sanction with respect to any of the Stations.

(b) The Stations and their respective physical facilities, electrical and mechanical systems and transmitting and studio equipment (i) are being operated in all material respects in compliance with the specifications of the applicable F.C.C. Authorizations, and (ii) are being operated in compliance in all material respects with all requirements of the Communications Act. Each of the Stations has complied in all material respects with all requirements of the FCC and the Federal Aviation Administration with respect to the construction and/or alteration of such Station's antenna structures, and "no hazard" determinations for each antenna structure have been obtained.

(c) Each Borrower holding an interest in any license issued by the FCC and each of the Stations is in compliance in all material respects with the Communications Act.

(d) To the knowledge of Borrowers, there are no facts, conditions or events relating to any Borrower or the Stations that might cause the FCC to have a legally valid basis not to renew any of the F.C.C. Authorizations in the ordinary course.

(e) All reports, statements and other documents relating to the Stations currently required to be filed by any Borrower with the FCC or any other Governmental authority in connection with, or as a result of, a Borrower's operations of a Station(s) have been filed and complied with and were true, correct and complete in all material respects when filed.

(f) Any approvals required by the FCC in the operation of the KNOU assets have already been obtained by the appropriate Borrower. The KNOU assets are being operated in all material respects in compliance with the requirements of the Communications Act.
