TECHNICAL STATEMENT

This Technical Statement was prepared on behalf of Cumulus Licensing LLC ("Cumulus"), licensee of radio station WWIZ, Channel 280A, West Middlesex, Pennsylvania. Cumulus herein submits an application to cover the WWIZ outstanding construction permit . Exhibit A is a calculation of the WWIZ transmitter power output.

There is one (1) special operating condition attached to the construction permit which states:

"The permittee/licensee in coordination with other users of the site must reduce power or cease operation as necessary to protect persons having access to the site, tower or antenna from radio frequency electromagnetic fields in excess of FCC guidelines."
