

SUMMARY OF EDUCATION PROGRAMMING

Iglesia de Cristo Ministerios Llamada Final Bakersfield Palabra de Fe (Palabra de Fe) is located in Bakersfield, CA and is organized under non-profit religious corporation law exclusively for religious purposes. The purpose of Palabra de Fe is to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Palabra de Fe provides academic excellence while integrating faith with learning. Palabra de Fe will use the proposed Low Power FM (LPFM) station to provide programming for kids, teens and adults to help the families in its community. The kids programming will focus on the importance and benefits of being obedient and it will also include programming specifically for self-esteem building. Palabra de Fe's main focus with respect to youth programming will be on broadcasting music and call-in shows for the purpose of building character and strength to the young generation. Palabra de Fe's adult programming will center on family and marriage counseling with some round table discussions. Palabra de Fe's general programming will keep the community informed with news updates around the world and, more importantly, around the local community

Palabra de Fe proposes to broadcast educational programs such as the following:

- Prayer and testimony time (call-in show)
- Family counseling (call-in show)
- Live interviews
- Community shows
- Music, announcements, traffic, weather, news and contests
