

EXHIBIT 16
(Amended)

Assignee's Other Authorizations

Mr. Heilmann is currently an employee of Curtis Media Group, Inc. ("Curtis Media"), which is a marketing and operating company that oversees the operation of many of the stations identified in Exhibit 6. Curtis Media is not an FCC licensee and does not own any FCC licensee. Curtis Media and the stations identified in Exhibit 6 are commonly owned by Donald W. Curtis, President of the Assignor.

While Mr. Heilmann's employment title with Curtis Media is "Vice President General Manager," he is not officially an "officer" of the corporation or any related companies. His title as "Vice President" has been used by the company in an informal sense rather than in a formal legal sense. He also is not a director or owner of any interest in Curtis Media or any of its related companies or other media companies.

Upon his acquisition of WWPL(FM), Mr. Heilmann will be resigning as an employee of Curtis Media to own and operate WWPL(FM) full time. Mr. Heilmann will then have no involvement with the management of Curtis Media or any other media company.

Mr. Heilmann's acquisition of WWPL(FM) would fulfill his life-long aspiration to own and operate his own radio station. His ownership and operation of WWPL(FM) would be independent from his prior employment with Curtis Media.
