Re: Supplement to Interference Complaints
(W235CN, Providence, RI)
Application for FM Translator License
(BLFT-20171124AAA)

Dear Ms. Varner:

This will notify the Commission that Radio Sharon Foundation (“Radio Sharon”), licensee of Station W235CN, Providence, Rhode Island, is currently fully investigating each of the new complaints submitted by Red Wolf Broadcasting Corporation (“Red Wolf”), licensee of Station WJFF, Montauk, New York in its recently filed Supplement. Radio Sharon will file a report with the Commission as soon as we have concluded our investigation of the complaints’ claims contained in the Supplement.

However, because of the substantial similarity of the new complaints to earlier submitted complaints by Red Wolf, and based on the facts already in evidence regarding those earlier-submitted complaints, as well as our preliminary investigation of the new complainants’ locations, which are, for the most part, located outside of the WJFF 54 dBu contour or are virtually identical to locations of earlier-submitted complaints which were investigated and found to be unable to receive any interference caused by Station W235CN, it appears that these new claims will lack substantive merit, suffering from the same problems as earlier-submitted complaints.

Radio Sharon expects to file its response to the newest claims of interference as soon as we conclude our current inquiry. Please submit any questions to undersigned counsel.

Sincerely,
