

Property Plat

There is no change in the property or ground system associated with this proposal since it is proposed to duplex into the existing non-directional antenna of station KXTP. Photographs of this site have not been included since it is an existing AM site and the information should be on file with the FCC.