

EXHIBIT 5
FCC Form 315
Section II, Question 4

Parties to Application; Changes in Interests

This application seeks FCC consent to the acquisition of de jure control of Midwest Television, Inc. (“Midwest”), a Delaware corporation, licensee of KFMB(AM), KFMB-FM and KFMB-TV, San Diego, California, by Ms. Elisabeth Meyer Kimmel (a U.S. citizen), who is currently a minority (11%) owner of the licensee.

Ms. Kimmel’s family, through their interests in Midwest, have owned the San Diego stations for over four decades. Midwest has 1000 shares of issued and outstanding Class B voting stock.¹ The current voting and beneficial owners of the Class B voting shares are as follows:

August C. Meyer, Jr. (490 shares of Class B voting stock or 49%);

Gregory B. Lykins, Trustee of the 1997 August C. Meyer, Jr. Annuity Trust Number One (200 shares of Class B voting stock or 20%);

Gregory B. Lykins, Trustee of the 1997 Karen H. Meyer Annuity Trust Number One (200 shares of Class B voting stock or 20%); and

Elisabeth Meyer Kimmel (110 shares of Class B voting stock or 11%). Ms. Kimmel is the daughter of August C. Meyer, Jr. and Karen H. Meyer.²

¹ Midwest also has Class A stock but these share are nonvoting.

² On December 18, 2006, the FCC granted its consent to the relinquishment of de jure control of Midwest which would result from the transfer of 110 of Mr. Meyer’s then 600 Class B voting shares to his daughter Ms. Kimmel, thereby decreasing Mr. Meyer’s direct voting interest from 60% to 49%. (A consummation notice was filed December 19.) Ms. Kimmel has served as an officer of Midwest since 1997.

The 400 shares of Class B voting stock currently held by the two Meyer Family Annuity Trusts will be distributed (following FCC consent to the instant application) to Elisabeth Meyer Kimmel. (See Exhibit 6) After the distribution, the Class B voting shares of Midwest will be held as follows:

August C. Meyer, Jr. (490 shares of Class B voting stock or 49%);

Elisabeth Meyer Kimmel (510 shares of Class B voting stock or 51%).

As a result, Ms. Kimmel would acquire de jure or legal control of Midwest Television, Inc., and its San Diego stations.