

Consent to Submission of Contingent Applications

AGM California , the licensee of FM radio station KGFM, Bakersfield, California; AGM-Santa Maria, LP, the licensee of KPAT(FM), Orcutt, California; and Gold Coast Broadcasting LLC, the licensee of KOCP(FM), Camarillo, California hereby mutually consent and agree to contingent FCC Form 301 applications seeking minor modifications of the licenses of their stations, and an associated Petition for Nonadjacent Channel Change, if necessary, as part of a mutually interrelated set of channel changes involving those stations and station KSBL, Carpinteria, California. This document reflects an expression of the parties' intent. The parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts negotiate in good faith over the terms of a binding definitive agreement concerning compensation and other related matters for agreeing to the technical proposals made herein. At any time prior to the execution of a definitive agreement, any party may at any time, upon prior notice to the other parties, terminate the negotiations and dismiss its application without any liability to any other party. If a definitive agreement is not executed within 45 days of the date hereof, this Consent shall, without further action by any party, be deemed to be null and void and have no further effect or impose any liability on any party.
