* Percentage not calculated for entities and individuals that have an attributable interest. It is noted that there are no parties with an attributable interest in respondent under the FCC's equity debt plus (EDP) attribution standard.

** LIN TV Corp ("Company") has two classes of voting stock. Class C common stock represents 70% of the Company's voting power and Class A common stock represents the remaining 30% voting power. Both classes generally vote together as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of the Company stockholders. HM Capital Partners LLC and Mr. Carson, through intermediaries, each holds Class C common stock representing 35% of the Company's total voting power. The Class A common stock is publicly traded, with no Class A holder having 5% or more of the Company's total voting power. Class B nonvoting common stock is held by HM Capital and its affiliates. Class B stockholders lack voting rights but, without the consent of at least a majority of Class B stockholders, the Company may not enter into certain significant transactions.
