ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
FOUNDATION FOR COMMUNICATION OF CHRISTIAN FAITH AND CULTURE,
a nonprofit corporation

The undersigned, acting as incorporator under the Washington Nonprofit Corporation Act, under RCW 24.03, hereby adopts and executes the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this Foundation is FOUNDATION FOR COMMUNICATION OF CHRISTIAN FAITH AND CULTURE, hereinafter referred to as the "Foundation".

ARTICLE II

Duration

The period of duration of this Foundation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III

Purposes

The purposes for which this Foundation is formed are:

1. To operate a faith-based educational entity with the purposes of communicating and educating Judeo-Christian faith and cultural values through every means of communication and media;
2. To fund the purposes of the Foundation through broad-range fundraising activities, including, without limitation, auctions, public events, charitable solicitations and fundraises.
3. To expand the prophesy of the Foundation by initiating and assisting similar foundations in other geographic areas, however, under the direction and guidance of the Foundation;
4. The Foundation shall be non-political in its activities and shall discriminate against no person, group or area by race, religion, color, sex or national origin.

ARTICLE IV

Powers

In furtherance and not in limitation of the general powers conferred upon nonprofit corporations by the laws of the State of Washington, and in furtherance and not in limitation of the objects and purposes set forth in these Articles, which are consistent with 26 U.S.C. § 501 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, this Foundation shall have and exercise all powers necessary for, incidental to, desirable for, or useful or convenient in carrying out each and all of its objects and purposes, express or implied. These powers shall include, but not be limited to the following:

1. Power to Carry Out Objects and Purposes. The power to do any and all things set forth or included in these Articles by implication or otherwise as an object or purpose or otherwise, either alone, as an agent, as principal through the agency of others, by contract with any person, firm, association, partnership or corporation, as a joint venturer or partner, and in any other manner whatsoever.

2. Power to Deal with Business Privileges. The power to apply for, obtain, lease, register, purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, control, sell, and dispose of letters patent, patents, patent rights, rights to patents pending, applications for patents, copyrights, licenses and privileges, inventions, improvements, processes, trademarks and trade names, labels, brands, franchises, dealerships, and any other rights, permits or privileges of any kind or character whatsoever relating to or useful in connection with any business of the Foundation, and to use, develop, exercise, grant license in respect of, sell, let, protect, maintain, exchange or otherwise deal in and with the same.

3. Power to Acquire and Operate Other Businesses. The power to acquire rights in and acquire all or any part of the good will, rights, assets, business and property of, and to assume, pay, compromise or discharge all or any part of the liabilities of any person, firm, association, proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity; the power to pay for the same in cash, bonds, debentures, notes, assets of any character whatsoever or otherwise; the power to hold, operate, carry on, improve, add to, and dispose of the whole or any part of any assets or businesses so acquired, and to exercise all the powers necessary, desirable, or convenient concerning the conduct and management of such businesses, regardless of whether such powers be herein expressed and whether the business be one included by implication or otherwise, in the objects and purposes herein set out.

4. Power to Enter Into and Perform Contracts. The power to enter into, make, perform, assume and carry out contracts of every kind for any lawful purpose, without limitation as to amount and with Directors or Officers if such Contracts are at arms length, at market rate of compensation and approved by a majority of disinterested Directors.

5. Power to Borrow. The power to borrow money and to issue its notes, bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness and the power to secure, at its option, any of the same by mortgage or otherwise, of any of its real, mixed or personal property.

6. Power to Lend. The power to lend money on such security as it shall determine or without security; to acquire any kind of property by foreclosure, seizure, or otherwise, and to deal with the same as a natural person could or might do; to exercise any and all powers necessary, desirable, incidental or convenient in order to secure or enforce any rights of any kind and in any capacity growing out of any relationship, legal instrument, assets or property in which it has or might have any interest, legal or equitable.

7. Power to Use Fictitious Name. The power to carry on business in its own name, in any assumed name, and through any partially or wholly owned corporation and to sue and be sued in its own name and any assumed name.

8. Power to Act as Incorporator. The power to act as an incorporator of corporations formed to carry on any part or parts of its objects, purposes and functions in any location.

9. Power to Act in Fiduciary or Representative Capacity. The power to act as agent, trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, broker and in any other representative or fiduciary capacity, with or without revealing such relationship; the power to accept and execute trusts, whether created by will, grant or order of any court and regardless of the kind of fiduciary relationship or the kind of assets held or to be held by it as such fiduciary; and the power to carry out all responsibilities upon it imposed by the instrument or order creating the relationship, including the exercise of powers not specifically or by implication herein set forth.

10. Power to Guarantee Obligations. The power to guarantee the obligation of and to act as surety for any person, partnership, association, corporation, joint venture, or business or other entity of any kind or character, including the power to mortgage, pledge, or otherwise hypothecate its property, both real and personal, to secure the payment of debts and obligations of others.

11. Power to Deal in Real Property. The power to buy, acquire, acquire rights in, hold, lease (as lessee or lessor), sell, transfer, convey and otherwise dispose of improved or unimproved real property and interest therein of every kind and description, whether or not in possession.

12. Rulemaking and Enforcement Powers. The power to make, adopt, amend, add to, revise, or modify, and enforce rules and regulations for the control, management, restriction and protection of all or and part of its Institutional or Endowment Funds, consistent with RCW 24.44. Provided, however, that all rules and regulations adopted by the Foundation shall be consistent with the laws and constitution of Washington State, the laws of Benton County, and the provisions of 26 U.S.C. § 501 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that all rules and regulations shall be plainly printed or typewritten and maintained in the Registered Office of the Foundation for inspection, or at such other place as the Foundation may prescribe.

13. Incidental Powers. Subject to the limitations imposed by 26 U.S.C. § 501 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and the Washington State Constitution, this Foundation shall have the power to do any and all other acts and things, and to have and to exercise any and all further powers which a natural person or co-partnership could do and exercise; the power and authority to exercise any and all further powers now or hereafter belonging to or conferred upon nonprofit corporations; and the power to have and to exercise any and all other and further powers necessary, convenient, incidental, desirable or useful in any manner whatsoever in the exercise of the powers set forth in these Articles or carrying out the objects and purposes set forth in these Articles. All of these powers, whether herein specifically set out or contained by implication, shall not be deemed in any manner whatsoever to be exclusive and shall be in furtherance of and not in limitation of the general corporate powers of nonprofit corporations, conferred by the laws of the State of Washington, but shall be subject to the limitations imposed by 26 U.S.C. §501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it from time to time may be amended.

ARTICLE V

Limitation on Powers

1. Prohibition Against Private Inurement. No part of the net earnings of the Foundation shall inure to the benefit or be distributed to its Directors, Officers, Trustees, Employees or other private persons, except that the Foundation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Foundation in carrying out one or more of its purposes or contract services with the Foundation if proper under Article IV, Section 4.
2. Prohibition Against Specific Activities.
 - a. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Foundation shall not carry on nor engage in any activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, or, (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under 26 U.S.C. § 170 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.
 - b. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Foundation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this Foundation.
 - c. No substantial part of the activities of the Foundation shall be devoted to the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The Foundation shall not participate in or intervene in, including the publishing or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office, nor shall the Foundation, through any of its entities or funds, distribute any funds in furtherance of the influence of legislation or toward any political campaign of any kind.

ARTICLE VI

Registered Office

The address of the initial registered office of the Foundation is: 1177 Jadwin Ave., Suite 105, Richland, WA 99352, and the name of its initial registered agent at such address is Mario M. Ledesma, Esq. The written consent of such person to serve as the initial registered agent is attached to these Articles.

ARTICLE VII

Board of Directors

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Foundation, the management of this Foundation shall be vested in a Board of Directors. The initial Directors shall be thirteen (13), and their names and addresses are:

ARTICLE VIII

Election, Qualification and Number of Directors

The Directors shall be elected by the Board of Directors of the Foundation. The qualifications, number and manner in which the Directors are to be elected shall be as specified in the Bylaws of the Foundation.

ARTICLE IX

Foundation Officers and Their Powers and Duties

The Officers of the Foundation shall consist of President, President-Elect, one or two Vice Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer and other officers as provided for in the Bylaws. The several Officers of the Foundation shall have such powers and shall perform such duties as specified in the Bylaws of the Foundation. Whenever the Board of Directors may so order, any two Officer positions, the duties of which do not conflict, may be held by one person, with the exception of the offices of President and Secretary.

ARTICLE X

Election of Officers

The Board of Directors may elect such Officers of the Foundation from time to time as it deems necessary in the conduct of the business and affairs of the Foundation for such terms and in such manner as shall be provided for in the Bylaws of the Foundation.

ARTICLE XI

Members of the Foundation/Friends of the Foundation

There shall be no members of the Foundation. The Board may develop an auxiliary of non-voting advocates, i.e. Friends of the Foundation, who assist the Foundation in the discharge of its duties and assist in raising funds for Foundation purposes; provided, however, no such group assisting the Foundation in its ad hoc capacity shall violate any provision of RCW 24.03, the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Foundation or 26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3).

ARTICLE XII

The Endowment Fund

The Foundation may establish, maintain and operate an inviolable Endowment Fund as allowed under RCW 24.44, which shall be managed consistent with RCW 24.44. The Endowment Fund governing body shall be the Directors of the Foundation. The Directors may directly manage the Endowment Fund or may appoint a Bank, a licensed Investment Agent or Trust Company qualified to engage in the trust business, and such Bank, licensed Investment Agent or Trust Company shall be authorized to receive and accept the funds deposited in the Endowment Fund in existence at the time of the appointment. The governing body or appointed Bank, licensed Investment Agent or Trust Company shall be allowed compensation for the administration of the Endowment Fund, provided, however, that the compensation shall not exceed in the aggregate the customary fee charged by Banks, licensed Investment Agents or Trust Companies for like services. Such fees shall not be paid from the principal. The governing body shall, annually, within ninety (90) days after the end of the calendar or fiscal year of the Foundation, make and keep on file for seven (7) years a true and correct written report, verified by oath of an Officer of the Foundation or by the oath of one or more of the Directors, showing the actual condition of the Endowment Fund.

ARTICLE XIII

Bylaws

The Board of Directors is authorized to make, alter, amend, or repeal the Bylaws of this Foundation as provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XIV

Limitations on Distributions

This Foundation shall have no capital stock. Furthermore, no part of the net earnings of this Foundation shall inure in whole or in part to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any Director or Officer or other individual having a personal or private interest in the activities of the Foundation, or to any person or organization other than an organization which is exempt from federal income taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(a) and 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that the Foundation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to make reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in its behalf, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the Purposes stated in Article III.

Provided, further, the Foundation is authorized and required to distribute any such earnings from the Endowment Fund that is consistent with RCW 24.44 and these Articles, that shall inure to the benefit of selected Donees, as the Governing Body, in its sole discretion, shall determine.

ARTICLE XV

Transactions Involving Directors

1. No contracts or other transactions between this Foundation and any other corporation, and no act of this Foundation, shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any Director of this Foundation is pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or is a Director or Officer of, such other corporation.

2. Any Director, individually, or any firm of which any Director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contracts or transactions of the Foundation; provided, that the fact that such Director or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed to or shall have been known by the Board of Directors or a majority of Directors.

ARTICLE XIII

Amendments

This Foundation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation by the affirmative vote of a majority of a quorum of the Directors present at a meeting of the Board of Directors. Provided, however, that any such amendments or repeals shall, at all times, be consistent with 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it now exists or as hereafter amended.

ARTICLE XIX

Incorporator

The name and residence of the Incorporator who forms this Foundation is Mario M. Ledesma, Esq., 1177 Jadwin Avenue, Suite 105, Richland, WA 99352.

ARTICLE XX

Exemption of Private Property

The Incorporator, Directors, Officers and Agents of the Foundation and their property shall be forever exempt from liability or assessment for the Foundation's debts, obligations, or engagements.

ARTICLE XXI

Indemnity

To the extent permitted by the laws of the State of Washington, this Foundation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative by reason of the fact that he or she is or was the Incorporator, a Director, an Officer or Volunteer of this Foundation, or is or was serving at the request of this Foundation as a Director, Officer, Volunteer, Employee, or Agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Foundation, and with respect to any criminal act or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful, except that with respect to an action by or in the right of this Foundation, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to this Foundation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

A nonprofit corporation

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE III

PURPOSES

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to exempt organizations that qualify within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as now enacted or the corresponding sections of any future federal tax code. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution, shall be devoted to said purposes.

The following Articles are amended to change the designation, 26 U.S.C. § 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, to read 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. All such changes are indicated in bold type.

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE IV

POWERS

In furtherance and not in limitation of the general powers conferred upon nonprofit corporation by the laws of the State of Washington, and in furtherance and not in limitation of the objects and purposes set forth in these Articles, which are consistent with 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, this Foundation shall have and exercise all powers necessary for, incidental to, desirable for, or useful or convenient in carrying out each and all of its objects and purposes, express or implied. These powers shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Subsequent paragraphs 1. – 11. of Article IV remain as originally filed with the Secretary of State

12. Rulemaking and Enforcement Powers. The power to make, adopt, amend, add to, revise, or modify, and enforce rules and regulations for the control, management, restriction and protection of all or part of its Institutional or Endowment Funds, consistent with RCW 24.44. Provided, however, that all rules and regulations adopted by the Foundation shall be consistent with the laws and constitution of Washington State, the laws of Benton County, and the provisions of 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that all rules and regulations shall be plainly printed or typewritten and maintained in the Registered Office of the Foundation for inspection, or at such other place as the Foundation may prescribe.

13. Incidental Powers. Subject to the limitations imposed by 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and the Washington State Constitution, this Foundation shall have the power to do any and all other acts and things, and to have and exercise any and all authority to exercise any and all further powers now or hereafter belonging to or conferred upon nonprofit corporations; and the power to have and exercise any and all other and further powers necessary, convenient, incidental, desirable or useful in any manner whatsoever in the exercise of the powers set forth in these Articles. All of these powers, whether herein specifically set out or contained by implication, shall not be deemed in any manner whatsoever to be exclusive and shall be in furtherance of and not in limitation of the general corporate powers of nonprofit corporations, conferred by the laws of the State of Washington, but shall be subject to the limitations imposed by 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it from time to time may be amended.

ARTICLE V

LIMITATIONS ON POWERS

Paragraph 1. No change is made.

Paragraph 2. Prohibition Against Specific Activities.

- a. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Foundation shall not carry on nor engage in any activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt for federal income tax under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, or, (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under 26 U.S.C. § 170 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

Subsequent Paragraph 2: subsection b and subsection c remain as originally filed.

ARTICLE XIV

LIMITATIONS ON DISTRIBUTIONS

This Foundation shall have no capital stock. Furthermore, no part of the net earnings of this Foundation shall inure in whole or in part to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any Director or Officer or other individual having a personal or private interest in the activities of the Foundation, or to any person or organization other than an organization which is exempt from federal income taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that the Foundation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to make reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in its behalf, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the Purposes stated in Article III.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.
