The Applicant, The American General Media Foundation ("AGMF") is a corporation formed under the New Mexico Nonprofit Corporation Act in 2007. AGMF has been granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and is registered as a Charitable Organization with the State of New Mexico.

On or about the date of this application, an application on FCC Form 314 is being filed requesting the Commission's consent to the voluntary assignment of the license for station KHFM from AGM Nevada, L.L.C. to AGMF. This application requests that upon consummation of that assignment, KHFM be changed to non-commercial status.

The purpose for which AGMF was formed is to promote the enjoyment and appreciation of the performing arts and to raise and distribute donations to promote such objectives. AGMF intends to continue KHFM's current classical music format. That programming includes, and will continue to include, a variety of classical and opera music performances, interviews with conductors, musicians, music educators and others, and other programming designed to educate the public and to thereby enhance listeners' enjoyment and appreciation of classical music. The on air personalities on KHFM, who are expected to remain with the station following its acquisition by AGMF, are experienced broadcasters with extensive backgrounds in classical music, and each uses his or her expertise to educate and inform listeners about the genre.

The station also serves as a platform for local musical performing organizations to bring their music to the community. In addition, the station broadcasts news and traffic programming, and public service announcements, and engages in community service activities. AGMF intends to continue these activities following its acquisition of KHFM.

As the only classical music station in the Albuquerque, New Mexico market, KHFM serves an important role in educating the public about classical music and providing free over the air classical music programming. Under KHFM's ownership as a non-commercial station, AGMF will continue to provide this valuable educational programming.
