

Exhibit E-14

As previously discussed, this application seeks merely to correct the geographic coordinates of the existing KGYM antenna system. There are no actual physical changes proposed to the antenna system. Although the change in coordinates would result in minor changes to the interference situation between other facilities, no actual changes would occur since KGYM has actually been operational from the specified coordinates since its construction.