

RFR COMPLIANCE

The tower crew was well versed and educated in regards to the various services operating on this tower. The WJMJ antenna has nothing within several hundred feet of its location, and the crew took care that they were not exposed to RFR levels in excess of FCC rules. All services operating from this tower were cooperative.