Jr. College Wins by Big Vote Margin

ELECTION RESULTS

Only 16 Per Cent Turnout; Albany Bonds Defeated

JUNIOR COLLEGE

For 31,777
Against 9,538

A new Junior College district for Northern Alameda County was approved today after an election that attracted less than 16 per cent of the registered voters.

Area 1

TRUSTEES

William H. McFarland 18,411
Franz S. Collischonn 14,741
Dana S. Turpin 3,383

The new college to serve the cities of Alameda, Albany, Berkeley, Emeryville, Oakland, and Piedmont, will go into operation next July 1, with the Oakland City College as its nucleus.

Area 2

R. Bryce Young 21,441
Robert H. Swadley 14,098

The proposal rolled up a majority of nearly 3 to 1 as voters straggled to the polls Tuesday in less than expected number. A driving rain storm helped to reduce the tally. The vote was

Area 3

Blake W. Spencer 11,681
John H. Sutter 8,033
Warren W. Wildman 4,194
Gerald A. Rose 2,947
Charles R. Hoge 2,258
Charles A. Conlin 2,296
Courtland D. Arne 2,089
Clyde Dalton 1,318
James F. Fernhoff 932

31,777 in favor of the district and 9,538 against.

In Albany, a $995,000 high school bond issue failed for the second time to win the required two-thirds approval. It led by only 57.6 per cent of the vote.

Elected are: Area 1—William H. McFarland, Alameda high school administrator, who ran surprisingly strong, outscoring former Alameda Mayor Franz S. Collischonn by more than 3,600 votes.

Area 4

Richard A. G. Foster 18,089
Joseph Simmons 17,257

Area 5

Margaret Fair Hayes 16,280
Peter Rex Adkins 10,375
Lester S. McElwain 8,407

Area 2—R. Bryce Young, Foot-Hill College instructor, who topped the ballot with more than 21,000 votes.

Area 6

Stanley E. McCaffrey 17,227
Paul F. Hughey 8,469
Wilson G. Pinney 6,358
Gunnar D. Benonys 4,026

Area 3—Blake W. Spencer, retired dean of Oakland City College, who led a field of nine candidates and had a lead of more than 3,600 over his closest opponent, John H. Sutter, attorney.

Area 7

Cheryl R. Kleinnam 17,387
Frederic L. Harvey 12,280
William A. Johnson 6,250
Linda Lee Webb 2,248
Naomi E. Torrez 1,838

Area 4—The Rev. Richard A. G. Foster, who nosed out Joseph Simmons, won by the closest race of the election. Foster's unofficial margin of 832 votes is more than would be needed to offset any tally of 717 absentee votes to be counted next week.

Albany School Bonds

For 2,573
Against 1,744

Area 5—Mrs. Margaret Fair Hayes, Piedmont housewife and past president of the California League of Women Voters. She held a lead of nearly 6,000 votes over her nearest opponent, Peter Rex Adkins, newspaperman.

Area 6—Stanley McCaffrey, Bay Area Council president and former vice president of the Uni-

Citizen Group Maps Attack on 'De Facto' Bars

By DICK RICCA

Tribune Education Writer

BERKELEY — Drastic boundary changes, directed open enrollment and district wide programs of special education have been proposed as solutions to the problems of racial imbalance in the Berkeley schools.

The proposals are included in a 100-page report on "De Facto Segregation in the Berkeley Public Schools" presented to the Board of Education here Tuesday by a special 33-man citizens

Supervisors To Approve Rights Body

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors is committed to create a countywide Human Relations Commission to combat discrimination against minority groups.

The board announced at the end of a two and half hour hearing late Tuesday it will fashion in final form on Dec. 3, an ordinance setting up the commission, spelling out its powers and arranging its financing.

Secret Lies In Who Was Victim

By JERRY MARTIN

Watching a pathologist methodically extract the secrets of a few flecks of dried blood—like seeing the first act of a murder mystery.

But who was the victim? Was it Judy Williamson, the missing University of California coed?

The Tribune obtained its own minute sample from a pool of dried blood found in a remote corner of an underground University of California garage, on blocks from where Judy's discarded books were found in a trash can.

The sample, scraped from the cement floor, was not thrown
