¹ Because there is no debt that would cause any otherwise non-attributable party to acquire attributable status as a result of operation of the "equity-debt-plus" rule (47 C.F.R. § 73.3555, Note 2(j)), percentage of capital contribution is reported for each limited partner or LLC member throughout this form (that is, the ratio of the member's or limited partner's capital contribution to the total capital contributions to the entity from all members or partners).
