

EXHIBIT 6

INTERFERENCE TO EXISTING STATIONS

LONGLEY-RICE ANALYSIS

A Longley-Rice terrain dependent interference study was conducted in accordance with OET Bulletin 69 with respect to K30CD, Carlin, NV. The study shows no area of interference and no population loss to K30CD.

DATA RETENTION

For your convenience, we retain the Longley-Rice printouts in the applicant's file. We will be happy to provide any supplemental information you may need with regards to this application.

JM
3/12/01