

EXHIBIT E-2
CHANNEL 6 STUDY
DOUGLAS, WYOMING, CHANNEL 204C3
WREN COMMUNICATIONS, INC.
FCC FORM 340
OCTOBER 2007

A study of potential interference to channel 6 television stations was conducted in regards to the proposed operation of this new station.

Two TV channel 6 records were found to be within the required spacing of 235 kilometers for this channel, a more detailed study was performed for these stations.

Figure 1 shows an interference study with KPTW-TV Casper, WY.

Figure 2 shows an interference study with K06JM-TV Gillette, WY.

It was determined that this application will be in compliance with the channel six protection requirements of 73.525 of the commission's rules.