

Exhibit E-22

The proposed facility would operate on channel 256C3. This channel is currently contained within the Commission's Table of Allotments as the proponent already has a construction permit for the facility specifying this particular channel as the channel of operation. It is therefore respectfully submitted that the allotment in question is in compliance with the provisions of Section 73.203 of the Commission's Rules.