

Eligibility Statement
Strategic International Ministries – Church

Strategic International Ministries is a local non-profit educational and religious organization and is organized as an UNINCORPORATED, ORGANIZED, SELF SUPPORTED, SPIRITUAL CHURCH MINISTRY on June 1, 2010 and also recognized by the State of California as a Church.

Strategic International has existed within Simi Valley to bring the local community together in partnerships by outreach and education to help with social issues including homeless, hunger, substance abuse, religious education and child care. Strategic International Ministries is a community organization representing a mix of different ages and ethnic backgrounds. We work together with local government and religious organizations on issues, which affect women and children. Strategic International Ministries is one of over 30 churches represented in Simi Valley.

The Applicant Strategic International Ministries proposes an LPFM radio station, which will serve the local community of Simi Valley, California. The Applicant proposes a format of religious music, local community service organizations, and events, and religious teaching as well as discussion and programs dealing with community issues and social topics. Simi Valleys claim to fame is the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum. The Applicant proposes a program that would highlight presidential library speakers, and special events as well as educational and historical programs unique to Simi Valley. Strategic will also draw upon High School internships to produce live radio programs relating to youth and a positive drug-free message.
