¹ Duff Ackerman & Goodrich II, L.P. (“DAG II, L.P.”) has one general partner, DAG II, LLC, and more than 45 limited partners. Most of these limited partners are passive investment funds or family trusts, and all but three have less than a 5% partnership interest. No fund holds as much as a 14% partnership interest, and 23 limited partners hold less than a 1% partnership interest. Section 8.7 of the DAG II, L.P. Partnership Agreement contains language that the Commission has stated, in its instructions to FCC Form 314, is sufficient to insulate limited partners from attribution. This provision, which becomes effective upon the affirmative election of a limited partner, is intended to ensure that compliance with the Commission’s multiple ownership rules does not become an issue with respect to the limited partners. If, contrary to its present knowledge, any limited partner has an interest that would implicate the Commission’s multiple ownership rules, DAG II, L.P. will take all steps necessary to ensure that such limited partners will be insulated prior to the closing of the transaction proposed in this application. Accordingly, the limited partners have not been disclosed in this application.

² The right of limited partners to vote is limited to extraordinary events and, in such cases, is equal to the percentage of equity held.
