

Statement of Educational Objectives

Rosalinda C Raabe Ministries, (“Raabe Ministries”) is a tax exempt not-for-profit corporation chartered under the laws of Texas (see attached “Formation Documents”). Raabe Ministries’ goal is to provide educational services for those in need and to encourage greater community service from local citizens.

Raabe Ministries operates a church in Edinburg, TX. The church strives to motivate citizens to acquire spiritual, moral, and faith-based principles. The church offers a range of educational and charitable services including food for the homeless, substance abuse counseling, and help for abused women and children.

Through church programs, the church hopes to help local citizens obtain a better quality of life and take part in the community. The church also strives to promote culture among the people of Edinbur. Motivating citizens to be an active part of their community will be the main focus of the new LPFM station.

Raabe Ministries’ objective in acquiring the new LPFM station is to provide citizens of Edinbur with topics that will improve their life and encourage more civic involvement in the community. Raabe Ministries plans to use the LPFM station to discuss a range of issues, including the importance of community service and health care. Raabe Ministries hopes to alert the community of natural disasters or transportation problems. Through radio, Raabe Ministries will be able to reach a greater number of people and encourage a greater amount of community involvement.
