

Exhibit #4: Interference

This application requests to replace an authorized antenna with a different antenna which has less radiation in all azimuths. This station is currently authorized to radiate a signal level corresponding to the permitted antenna and the proposed signal will be equal or less in all azimuths, therefore no additional interference study is required.