

Calvary Chapel Lihue

Calvary Chapel Lihue is driven to make a major impact on the people who live within it's community of Lihue and Wailua. It seeks to provide ways to educate and inform as many citizens as possible, and for these citizens to become more involved in the community. With the increasing demand for community fellowship, community collaboration, and community involvement, Calvary Chapel Lihue seeks to reach all of the people of different backgrounds and culture, in our community. Calvary Chapel Lihue desires to be a liaison between these cultures, and to bring them together in Christian and civic harmony.

An LPFM radio station will allow Calvary Chapel Lihue to better achieve its purposes by becoming the vehicle to:

- Facilitate a connection between individuals and organizations who have resources, with individuals and community groups who have needs.
- Highlight and commend community service groups who are positively impacting our community.
- Provide testimonies from various individuals who represent the various cultures in our community, on the importance of love and service to our fellow man.
- Profile America's rich Christian history and heritage.
- Profiles Hawaii's rich native history and heritage.
- Provide education on parenting
- Provide education on family matters
- Inform residents on the importance of water safety, traffic safety, and conservation.
- Provide health education
- Provide community service bulletins
- Provide musical programming for various cultures and age groups.
- Provide daily programming from a religious college curriculum.
